WENDY SELIG-PRIEB

Chairman of the Board

Wendy Selig-Prieb became Chairman of the Board of the Milwaukee Brewers on November 1, 2002. As Chairman, Selig-Prieb will continue to represent the Brewers at Major League meetings and to work on industry issues as well as to focus on Brewers Charities and other community initiatives on behalf of the Brewers.

Selig-Prieb's passion and leadership have been vital to the Brewers since 1990 when she joined the club as General Counsel. In September 1992, she assumed more responsibility for the day-to-day operations when her father, Allan H. Selig, became Chairman of Baseball's Executive Council. On August 4, 1998, Selig-Prieb replaced him as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Milwaukee Brewers when he accepted the position of Commissioner of Major League Baseball.

The 2001 opening of Miller Park - a fan friendly, world class ballpark, was the culmination of a 10-year mission for Selig-Prieb and the realization of her vision of the ultimate entertainment experience. In the inaugural season, the Brewers surpassed their previous attendance record established in 1983 and set a franchise attendance record by drawing 2,811,041. This record setting attendance also represented an increase of 1,238,000, the largest increase by a Major League club in the first year of a new ballpark.

Selig-Prieb, a life-long fan of the game believes in its traditions and understands the responsibility of a team to its community. Under her leadership, the Brewers rededicated themselves to the community and enhanced their involvement, including the creation of Brewers Charities, Inc., in support of charities, activities and programs serving youth and the underprivileged throughout the State of Wisconsin.

Selig-Prieb is the only female Chairman of a Major League Baseball club. She is a member of The Commissioner's Initiative on Women and Baseball, and has been a driving force in efforts to bring more women and families out to the game. As part of management's 12-person negotiating committee in collective bargaining sessions with the MLB Players Association, she was the first woman to represent Major League Baseball at the bargaining table (1994 and 1995). She has served on numerous other committees for Baseball and has represented the Brewers at Major League meetings since 1992.

A lifelong Milwaukeean, Wendy is very active in the community. She is currently on the advisory board for the Child Abuse Prevention (CAP) Fund and is a member of the Board of Directors for the United Way of Greater Milwaukee. Since 1998, Wendy has served as the honorary chair for the March of Dimes WalkAmerica and she is a co-chair of the YWCA's Circle of Women luncheon for the second straight year. She is on the Board of Directors of Guaranty Bank and is a member of the Greater Milwaukee Committee.

Among the honors awarded to Selig-Prieb during her tenure with the Brewers are: the Joseph E. O'Neill Award which is given annually by the Marquette University National Sports Law Institute to an individual in sports who has made a significant contribution to the field and done so while exemplifying the highest ethical standards; Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal ranked her among the most powerful women in sports for three consecutive years; Milwaukee's Sixteenth Street Community Health Center honored her at their annual roast in 2000; Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal included her in its inaugural "40 under 40" list in 1999; a past finalist for the Women in Sports and Events (WISE) Woman of the Year award; and in 1992 The Business Journal serving greater Milwaukee included her in its "40 Under 40" profiles.

Selig-Prieb was born in Milwaukee on March 18, 1960. She graduated from University School in Milwaukee in 1978. She graduated magna cum laude in 1982 from Tufts University in Medford, Massachusetts, with a bachelor's degree in political science. Selig-Prieb began her baseball career in the Brewers broadcasting department in 1982 before becoming an Executive Trainee in the Baseball Commissioner's office for two years. After earning her Juris Doctor, magna cum laude, from Marquette University Law School in 1988, Selig-Prieb worked as a corporate attorney for Foley & Lardner before joining the Brewers.

Selig-Prieb is married to Laurel Prieb, the Brewers Vice President of Corporate Affairs. They have a daughter, Natalie, and reside in Fox Point, Wisconsin.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS
MISSION STATEMENT

The Milwaukee Brewers are committed to fielding a competitive team both on and off the field that exemplifies a strong work ethic, respect for the game and loyalty to our fans. We deliver an affordable fan friendly, high quality entertainment experience in a world-class facility.

As a fiscally responsible organization, our employees are dedicated to enhancing our relationships with the diverse businesses, communities and citizens of the city of Milwaukee and state of Wisconsin.

Milwaukee Brewers/Brewers Charities IN THE COMMUNITY

The club is pleased to support hundreds of worthy events and activities each year throughout the State of Wisconsin in two ways - through the Community Relations Department and Brewers Charities, the club's charitable arm. Each year, many charities, educational groups, youth groups, and non-profit organizations raise hundreds of thousands of dollars with the support of players and auction items provided by the Milwaukee Brewers or through grants provided by Brewers Charities.

Auction, Speakers Bureau & Brewers Charities Requests

Each year, we provide thousands of promotional items and autographed merchandise to assist organizations with their fundraising efforts. To request an item from the club, please call the Community Relations Hotline at (414) 902-4800. The Milwaukee Brewers Community Relations Department asks that all requests be submitted in writing at least 30 days in advance of the date of the fundraising event. This deadline ensures that we can fulfill donation requests in a timely manner that is fair to all deserving organizations. Groups and organizations wishing to schedule an appearance by a representative of the ballclub can also contact the Community Relations hotline. All donations for speaking engagements support Brewers Charities. For more information about Brewers Charities, please call 414-902-4488 or visit our website at milwaukeebrewers.com, for information about upcoming activities.

"Best Friends" Day at Miller Park

The Milwaukee Brewers Baseball Club invites middle school girls who belong to the Milwaukee Public Schools "Best Friends" program to shadow front office women during a typical day at the ballpark. Several MPS schools participate in the program, which concludes with a lunch and a special behind the scenes tour of Miller Park.

Big League Blood Drive

The club continues to team up with the Blood Center of Southeast Wisconsin to offer a most unique site for a blood drive: the Miller Park Press Box. The "Big League Blood Drive" has drawn more than 3,000 donors since 2001. In 2001, due to the overwhelming response from the public at the "Big League Blood Drive", the Blood Center had enough supplies to respond to the September 11th tragedy.

Brewers Buddies Program

Last season, more than 23,000 complimentary tickets were distributed to youth groups and community organizations through the Brewers Charities/Brewers Buddies program. This program is made possible through the generosity of season ticketholders, who turn in the tickets they cannot use for future games. The tickets are donated to the Brewers Buddies program and then distributed statewide to worthy organizations. For more information about participation in the Brewers Buddies program, please call 414-902-4509.

Brewers Charities Carnivalfest

Each summer, our players join more than 2,500 youngsters at Wick Field for Carnivalfest, hosted by MPS Recreation Division. Our players are on hand to teach kids the finer points of baseball, including fielding, hitting and pitching clinics along with autograph booths, games and a picnic to round out a great day of activities.

Safe at Home Picnic

The Safe at Home Picnic at Miller Park features our players, their wives, our broadcast teams and other front office personnel who mingle with fans, sign autographs and wait tables. Over the years, proceeds from the picnic benefited the Child Abuse Prevention (CAP) Fund to provide programs that educate the public about the importance of prevention and encourage community action to end child abuse. Since the CAP Fund was created in 1987, the Milwaukee Brewers and Brewers Charities have helped generate more than $1 million for the CAP Fund.

Girls of Summer League

Each summer, Brewers Charities helps fund the Girls of Summer softball league for central city girls ages ten to twelve. The program, in partnership with Girls Scouts of Milwaukee Area and MPS Recreation Division, promotes self-esteem, teamwork, sportsmanship and self-discipline for more than 250 area girls.

Jim Gantner Classic

The Jim Gantner Classic High School All-Star game, named after the popular former Brewers' player, is held at magnificent Miller Park. High school baseball coaches from around the state nominate the players who participate in the Gantner Classic. All nominees must participate in tryout camps before they are able to advance to the Jim Gantner Classic.

Little Brewers Club

The Milwaukee Brewers, Brewers Charities, Major League Baseball and the Boys & Girls Clubs of Wisconsin sponsor the Little Brewers Club, a statewide baseball league for children between the ages of six and nine. The program has grown to 2,500 children and more than two dozen Boys & Girls Clubs and receives support through a grant by Brewers Charities.

RBI League

The RBI League, Reviving Baseball in the Inner City, is an initiative of Major League Baseball, which began more than 20 years ago in Los Angeles. The Brewers have joined many other Major League teams in offering this program which targets African-American teenagers ages thirteen to fifteen. Brewers' RBI teams have competed in regional competition. Milwaukee Public Schools Recreation Division is an important partner in the RBI League and Brewers Charities provides funding for the program.

Sausage Run/Walk

Runners and walkers look forward to the annual Sausage Run/Walk, held each August at Miller Park. Last year, 1,500 participants raced with the popular sausages, which run the entire 5K course. Prizes are also awarded for the most creative costumes in the race. All proceeds from the annual run/walk support the programs of Brewers Charities.

Scoreboard Recognition Program

Fans can purchase a single line or a full scoreboard message during a game at Miller Park through the Scoreboard Recognition Program. Miller Park has been the site of many marriage proposals and birthday wishes through this program and all proceeds benefit Brewers Charities. For more information, please go to our website at milwaukeebrewers.com where a form can be downloaded and submitted for this unique program.

Selig Scholars Program

The Brewers Charities/Allan H. Selig Scholars Program was created in the name of former Brewers' President and current Commissioner of Baseball Allan H. (Bud) Selig. Funding for the scholarship is the result of proceeds donated by Major League Baseball, from the All-Star Workout Day, part of the 2002 All-Star festivities held at Miller Park. Wisconsin students selected for the program, who show promise but are financially challenged, receive up to $10,000 in funds to attend a college in Wisconsin and participate in a variety of mentoring, job shadowing and internship opportunities offered through the program.

Strive for Excellence Day

"Strive for Excellence Day" is a joint venture between the Milwaukee Brewers Baseball Club and Milwaukee Public Schools designed to encourage and reward middle school students (grades six through eight) who strive for excellence in academics, attendance and attitude. Motivational and personal messages from individuals to whom students look up to, such as professional baseball players and our front office staff, can be an important factor in efforts to encourage and reward students to reach their goals. The program has two major components: a morning visit to nearly thirty schools by our players; and a school trip to Miller Park for a baseball game.

Student Achievers Program

Brewers Charities has teamed up with the Bradley Foundation and the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel to sponsor an incentive program for area students who demonstrate academic effort and achievement. This partnership has continued for over 17 years and last year more than 25,000 students from 600 schools in eight counties in grades 7-12 were recognized with a certificate, highlighted in a special section of the newspaper and rewarded with game tickets.

Thanksgiving Turkey Giveaway

The Milwaukee Brewers, Brewers Charities and WMCS Radio/AM 1290 earmark the Thanksgiving holiday period to donate and deliver more than 300 turkeys to needy families in the Milwaukee area. Local non-profit organizations help identify families who would not be able to enjoy a turkey dinner and players and coaches volunteer their time to deliver the meals and brighten the Thanksgiving holiday for needy families in Milwaukee.

Wave Soccer at Miller Park

For the first time since Miller Park opened, a sporting event other than baseball was held on the playing field when the Milwaukee Brewers and the Milwaukee Wave teamed up with Wendy's Restaurants in 2003 to present the Keith Tozer 4x4 Soccer Spectacular. Seventy-two teams of boys and girls ages 9 to 14 played soccer at Miller Park with all proceeds supporting Brewers Charities and the March of Dimes.

Winter Tour

This annual road show, sponsored by Miller Lite, is an opportunity for our front office staff, broadcasters, current and former players to build fan excitement for the upcoming season. Each January, we set out to cities throughout Wisconsin to connect with our fans and build support for the ballclub. Stops include schools, hospitals, luncheons, and dinners that help raise money for local groups.

Wives in the Community

Our players' wives play an important role in our community outreach efforts with their commitment to several important causes. Each summer, our wives host a tailgate party to benefit Sojourner Truth House, a shelter for battered women and children. Another way we extend our reach into the community is to engage our players and their wives in charitable activities. The Brewers' players and their wives make dozens of appearances at schools, before youth groups, and hospitals. Some of our players also purchase tickets and food vouchers for kids, or provide direct financial support for youth baseball groups.

Youth Baseball Clinics

Each summer, hundreds of youngsters gather at local parks to learn the finer points of baseball. Our players and coaches donate their time to help kids develop proper techniques of hitting, pitching, fielding, and base running. The instruction is invaluable with an additional emphasis on sportsmanship and goal setting.

DOUG MELVIN

Executive Vice President and General Manager

Doug Melvin was named the Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Milwaukee Brewers on September 26, 2002. He is the eighth General Manager in Brewers history.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Melvin, 51, was the successful General Manager of the Texas Rangers from 1996-2001. He helped the Rangers earn their first post-season appearance ever in 1996. Under his direction, the Rangers won the American League Western Division title three times.

In his first season with the Brewers, Melvin's first move was to claim outfielder Scott Podsednik off waivers. Podsednik had a fantastic rookie season earning second place in the National League Rookie of the Year Award balloting by the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Highly decorated, Melvin was named Major League Executive of the Year by Baseball America in 1998. He also earned that award from The Sporting News in 1996 and was named American League Executive of the Year by Baseball America that same year. He was elected to the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997.

Before joining the Rangers, Melvin spent nine years in the Baltimore Orioles organization. He joined Baltimore as a special assistant to club owner Edward Bennett Williams and General Manager Hank Peters in 1986. He became the Director of Player Personnel in charge of minor league operations in November, 1987 and added the title of Assistant General Manager under Executive Vice President/General Manager Roland Hemond the next year.

Melvin worked for the New York Yankees from 1979-85 following his retirement as an active player. He pitched batting practice and coordinated advance scouting reports for the Major League coaching staff, earning a promotion as the club's Scouting Director in 1985.

As a player, Melvin pitched for six seasons in the Pittsburgh Pirates and New York Yankees organizations, posting career marks of 29-19 with a 3.43 ERA. He was signed by Pittsburgh in 1972 and pitched two years before being released. After sitting out in 1974 with a leg injury, he was signed by the Yankees by then Scouting Director Pat Gillick and played four more years.

The Chatham, Ontario native was inducted into the city's Sports Hall of Fame in September, 2000. He played football, basketball and hockey at Chatham Kent Secondary School and was selected to the school's Athletic Hall of Fame. He still holds the school's basketball record with 55 points in one game. He played in a number of amateur baseball leagues in his hometown and credits another Chatham native, Hall of Famer Ferguson Jenkins, with influencing him to pursue his professional baseball career.

Melvin is one of four natives of Canada to ever be a Major League General Manager joining George Selkirk of the Washington Senators (1962-68), former Yankees, Expos and Reds GM Murray Cook and former Toronto General Manager and current Brewers Assistant General Manager, Gord Ash.

Born August 8, 1952, Doug and his wife, Ellen, have two children, Ashley and Cory. The Melvins currently reside in Mequon, Wisconsin.

GORD ASH

Assistant General Manager

Gord Ash was named the Brewers Assistant General Manager on November 1 2002. Ash will assist with all aspects of the day to day brewers' baseball operation including strategic planning and the development and implementation of the baseball plan

Ash, 52 brings a wealth of business and baseball experience to his post with the Brewers.

Ash began his professional career working for the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce in May 1974. Following his tenure with the CIBC he joined the Toronto Blue Jays first in 1977 as a part-time game day employee then in a full time role in February 1978 as a ticket office employee. The very next year he moved into the stadium operations department and became the assistant director of stadium operations in February, 1980.

In February, 1984, Ash was appointed the Administrator, Player Personnel, supervising the daily operation of the Blue Jays minor league system. Ash was again promoted in January 1989 to the role of assistant general manager, working closely with highly respected Pat Gillick in the daily operation of the club. During their tenure the Blue Jays won consecutive World Series titles in 1992 and 1993 in addition to AL East titles in 1985, 1989 and 1991.

On October 14th, 1994, Ash was promoted to the post of Vice President and General Manager and served in that capacity through the 2001 campaign.

During his baseball career, Ash has served on a number of baseball committees for Major League Baseball on such topics as labor, collective bargaining, technology, continuing education and minor league facilities standards.

During his one season away from the game, Ash served as a baseball analyst for the Team Radio Network and TSN, a national sports television network in Canada. Ash also wrote a weekly baseball column for TSN.ca in addition to serving as a consultant to an international sports special risk insurer WJ Sutton and Co. based in Toronto.

A native of Toronto, Ash graduated from York University in 1974 with a Bachelor's Degree in history and sociology and completed post graduate executive development courses at Queen's University and the University of Michigan. He, and his family, reside in Mequon, Wisconsin.

JACK ZDURIENCIK

Director of Scouting

Jack Zduriencik (Zur-EN-sik) enters his fifth season as the Brewers Director of Scouting.

Zduriencik, 53, was named to the post on October 25, 1999. Prior to joining the Brewers, he was the Director of International Scouting and Special Assistant to the General Manager for the Los Angeles Dodgers, a position he held since October 29, 1998.

In his current role, Zduriencik directs all amateur scouting efforts for the Brewers.

Last season, with his first pick in the draft, he chose infielder Rickie Weeks with the second overall selection. Weeks was the Baseball America College Player of the Year and earned the Golden Spikes Award in 2003.

In 2002, Zduriencik selected slugging high school first baseman Prince Fielder with the seventh choice overall. Fielder was named the Most Valuable Player in the Midwest League, the USA Today Minor League Player of the Year and the Brewers Minor League Player of the Year in 2003.

In 2001, high school pitcher Mike Jones was the Brewers first pick, 12th overall, and was rated as the best prospect in the Pioneer League by Baseball America magazine after making his professional debut.

Number One Picks Under Zduriencik
2003	Rickie Weeks, IF (2nd overall)
2002	Prince Fielder, IF (7th overall)
2001	Mike Jones, RHP (12th overall)
2000	Dave Krynzel, OF (11th overall)

With his first draft selection for Milwaukee in 2000, Zduriencik chose speedy centerfielder David Krynzel with the 11th choice overall. Krynzel was named the Amateur Player of the Year by USA Baseball in 2000 and was also named the top prospect in the Pioneer League by Baseball America after his debut season.

Prior to joining the Dodgers, he worked with the New York Mets and the Pittsburgh Pirates. In two separate stints with the Mets, Zduriencik was the Special Assistant to the General Manager in 1998, Minor League Operations Director in 1996 and 1997, National Scouting Crosschecker in 1990, 1994 and 1995 and was an area scout from 1983-89.

He also served the Mets as an advance scout during the clubs' playoff runs in 1986 and 1988.

With the Pirates, Zduriencik was the Director of Scouting for three years from 1991-93. He made All-Star catcher Jason Kendall the Pirates first choice in the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.

Before joining the Mets, Zduriencik coached football and baseball at Clairton High School in Pittsburgh from 1977-80 and at Tarpon Springs High School in Florida from 1980-82. He also coached football and baseball at Austin Peay State University from 1975-77.

He played two years in the Chicago White Sox farm system in 1973-74.

Zduriencik has a bachelor's degree in Education from Cal-State Pennsylvania and a master's degree in Physical Education from Austin Peay University.

Born January 11, 1951 in New Castle, Pennsylvania, Jack and his wife, Debbie, have a daughter, Kimberly and reside in Whitefish Bay, Wisconsin.

REID NICHOLS

Special Assistant to the GM/Player Development

Reid Nichols, 45, was named the Special Assistant to the General Manager/Player Development on November 1. He reports to Doug Melvin and oversees the Brewers minor league department and works on special projects.

In 2003, the Brewers organization earned the Topps Organization of the Year Award and Baseball America rated the Brewers minor league talent level as an "A".

Prior to taking the 2002 season off to work on personal interests, he was the Director of Player Development and Minor League Instruction for the Texas Rangers from November, 1994 through 2001. During his tenure with the Rangers, he took the minor league department from a ranking of 28th to 4th as rated by Baseball Weekly magazine.

Before joining the Rangers, Nichols was the Director of Field Operations for the Baltimore Orioles in 1994 and worked as a coach and instructor in the Orioles system from 1991-93.

Nichols spent 13 seasons in professional baseball as a player and appeared in 540 Major League games for the Boston Red Sox, Chicago White Sox and Montreal Expos from 1980-87.

Nichols was born in Ocala, Florida on August 5, 1958.

DICK GROCH

Special Assistant to the GM/Scouting

Dick Groch (Growsh) was named Special Assistant to the General Manager/Scouting on October 15, 2002. He will assist Doug Melvin in all facets of scouting including international, professional and amateur efforts.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Groch was an area scout in the state of Michigan for the New York Yankees organization. He was responsible for the scouting and signing of All-Star shortstop Derek Jeter and spent 22 years with the Yankees organization. He also spent two seasons with the Montreal Expos in a scouting capacity.

Groch became a member of the Junior College Baseball Hall of Fame after compiling a record of 497-208 at St. Clair County Community College in Michigan. He helped 55 players get drafted by Major League clubs during his 18-year tenure from 1965-83. He also was an assistant basketball coach at St. Clair for four seasons from 1965-68 where he helped to muster an amazing 86-8 record.

Groch also was a coach in international play for both the United States and Canada appearing in the 1984 Olympics as a pitching coach for Canada as well as numerous Pan Am Games, the World Cup and other worldwide competitions.

Groch was born November 14, 1940 in Toledo, Ohio. He and his wife, Nancy, reside in Marysville, Michigan. The Groch's have two sons, Nick and Brian, and a daughter, Julie and eight grandchildren.

Miller Park
THE PEOPLE'S PARK

April 6, 2001 is a day that the people of Wisconsin and fans of Major League Baseball will remember for many years to come. In front of the President of the United States, the Commissioner of Baseball and many more dignitaries, the Milwaukee Brewers and Cincinnati Reds christened Miller Park in a thrilling game culminating with a game-winning home run from Richie Sexson in the bottom of the eighth inning.

President George W. Bush throwing out the first pitch in the Inaugural Game at Miller Park on April 6, 2001

President George W. Bush became the first sitting president to attend a professional sporting event in the state of Wisconsin. He, along with Baseball Commissioner, Allan H. (Bud) Selig, threw out ceremonial first balls prior to the game. This was just the first of many wonderful events that will take place in the Brewers' new home.

Miller Park has drawn more than 6,000,000 visitors in its first three seasons including 2,811,041 for Brewers baseball in 2001, shattering the all-time Milwaukee baseball record for attendance. The ballpark was a popular stop for fans outside of the Milwaukee area as well with more than 57% of the club's attendance coming from outside of the Milwaukee area. In addition, the Brewers established a group ticket sales record in 2001 with more than 619,000 group tickets sold.

Miller Park was not only the home to Brewers baseball in its inaugural season. While the team was away, the park played host to a pair of major concerts including the George Strait Country Music Festival in May and a show by the popular band N'Sync in July. Both concerts drew more than 34,000 fans each and earned rave reviews from the performers themselves.

The Klement's Famous Racing Sausages signed a three-year deal to keep racing at Miller Park through 2005.

That was just the beginning. The Brewers continued to make Miller Park the home for a wide variety of events in 2002. The ballpark hosted the 73rd Major League Baseball All-Star Game, Milwaukee's third all-star game and its first since 1975. Additionally, Miller Park accommodated a University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee baseball doubleheader in April.

In 2003, legendary rocker Bruce Springsteen brought his E Street Band to Miller Park for the first time for a memorable performance in front of more than 30,000 fans. The ballpark was also the host to the filming of the motion picture, "Mr. 3000" starring Bernie Mac.

With an economic impact, according to the Greater Milwaukee Convention and Visitors Bureau, of $416 million in 2001, Miller Park has played and will continue to be a huge part of the revival of Milwaukee as a tourist destination. Along with the Calatrava wing of the Milwaukee Art Museum, the Midwest Airlines Convention Center and the proposed Harley Davidson Museum, Miller Park has definitely put Milwaukee on the map as a place to visit any time of year.

Here's just a sampling of what others are saying about baseball's newest jewel:

"There's no comparison. This is an awesome building and a great place to play. You miss County Stadium, but when you see this, you forget about it real quick. It's like you're outside. It doesn't have that closed-in feeling like most domes do. They brought the outside in, so it's awesome." Brewers legend Jim Gantner.

"Oh, boy is that beautiful. This is one of the greatest ballparks in the country. Some dome stadiums feel like you're in someone's living room. But this, people will fall in love with it." United States Senator Russell Feingold.

"I truly wanted to put the uniform back on and play again." Hall of Famer Robin Yount, on his first impressions of Miller Park.

The 2002 All-Star Game was played at Miller Park.

What's Inside MILLER PARK?

Miller Park, the home of the Milwaukee Brewers, offers fans a one-of-a-kind entertainment experience.

The ballpark is the only one in North America to feature a convertible, fan-shaped roof guaranteeing that baseball will be played, even on the most inclement of Wisconsin days.

The roof features seven panels to cover the fans from weather elements. Each roof panel is the equivalent of the Bradley Center roof, in downtown Milwaukee. The entire roof closes in 10 minutes and at its outside height reaches 330 feet.

With a creative and unique split-bowl, seating configuration, fans are closer to the action than they have ever been before in Milwaukee. The four seating levels (the Field Level, the Loge Level, the Club Level and the Terrace Level), with 41,900 seats, give fans four great options and also four front rows from which to choose at Miller Park.

There are 70 suites at Miller Park including 20 Founders Suites located on the Field Level. They are the best suites in baseball. There are 50 suites on the Club Level, including several behind home plate affording suite holders a view of Brewers action unparalleled in Milwaukee baseball history.

The field dimensions at Miller Park, designed with the input of Hall of Famer and Brewers legend Robin Yount, are asymmetrical. The left field line is 344 feet; the left field power alley is 371 feet; straight-away center field is 400 feet; the right field power alley is 374 feet; and the right field line is 345 feet. The field has a natural grass playing surface and features the same infield mix as what existed at County Stadium, which had one of the best playing fields in Major League Baseball.

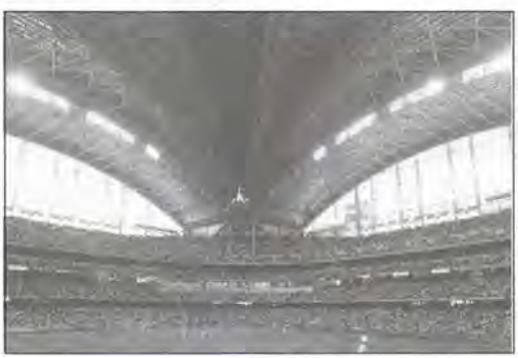
Miller Park offers fans upscale amenities including the .300 Club restaurant, TGI Friday's Front Row restaurant, an interactive area called the Big League Blast, an enormous and enticing novelty store called the Fan Zone as well as meeting rooms with amazing views of Milwaukee, all in the "Hot Corner" located in the left field area. The "Hot Corner" is open year-around to give fans and visitors a chance to enjoy Miller Park at any time.

One of the truly remarkable features of Miller Park is the beautiful color replay board and full scoreboard located in straight-away centerfield. The color replay board is 48x37 feet and gives fans a crystal clear view of exciting replays and highlights that they have never had in Milwaukee before. The 76x32 foot matrix board provides fans with all of the pertinent information regarding the action on the field.

"Isn't it nice, you can tell what's up there!"
Bob Uecker referring to the scoreboard.

Miller Park also features "Home To Heroes", a series of colorful murals depicting five great industries of Wisconsin tied to the five eras of baseball in the state, beginning with the American League Brewers of 1901 and continuing to the current and future Brewers. These murals are displayed throughout Miller Park.

The Miller Park experience extends to the parking lots as well. Miller Park will essentially become a "park within a park" with landscaping, which accentuates the great Wisconsin tradition of tailgating.



Miller Park construction began in October, 1996 with the official groundbreaking date on November 9, 1996. The ballpark is being funded by a 0.1% sales tax in five counties including Milwaukee, Racine, Waukesha, Ozaukee and Washington counties. The Brewers contributed $90 million to the project.

Visiting media wishing to tour Miller Park should contact the Brewers Media Relations Department prior to coming to Milwaukee.

For more information on tours, including times, fans should call the Miller Park tour hotline at (414) 902-4005.

Miller ParkWALK OF FAME

The Miller Park Walk of Fame commemorates some of the greatest names in Milwaukee Brewers baseball history. It is located on the plaza area outside of Miller Park near the statues of Robin Yount and Henry Aaron. Each inductee is honored with a granite-shaped home plate set in the ground.

Started in Miller Park's inaugural season of 2001, the Walk of Fame has welcomed six inductees going into the 2003 season. The first class of Walk-of-Famers in 2001 included Henry Aaron, Rollie Fingers, Paul Molitor and Robin Yount. In 2002, Allan H. (Bud) Selig and Cecil Cooper joined the prestigious ranks. In 2003, legendary Brewers radio voice Bob Uecker and former General Manager, Harry Dalton joined the Walk of Fame.

In 2004, Jim Gantner and Gorman Thomas will take their place on the Walk of Fame at special ceremonies scheduled for June 22. Walk of Fame inductees are selected by a committee of local media members, former winners and Brewers officials from a ballot of 25 former Brewers players, coaches, managers and front office executives.

Helfaer Field

WISCONSIN'S PREMIERE YOUTH BASEBALL FACILITY

The Milwaukee Brewers have joined with the Southeast Wisconsin Professional Baseball Park District Board and the Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation to build Helfaer Field, the home of Wisconsin's finest youth baseball facility.

Designed by Eppstein-Uhen Architects of Milwaukee, Helfaer Field has been built on the site of County Stadium by Hunzinger Construction, the company that built the original County Stadium and was a part of the team that built beautiful Miller Park.

The $3.1 million facility was built with the help of a $2 million charitable grant from the Helfaer Foundation as well as $1.1 million from the Miller Park infrastructure budget.

Featuring 502 bleacher seats and additional concourse seating of 220, this is the premier location for youth baseball and softball leagues to host their championship games and tournaments. The fences reach 200 feet with walls six feet high with the exception of left field where the wall is nine feet.

The foul poles of County Stadium have been used at Helfaer Field and the area where home plate existed in the old ballpark has been memorialized on the third base concourse.

The Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation was founded on February 2, 1974 and is dedicated to charitable, religious and educational purposes in Wisconsin and the greater Milwaukee area. Mr. Helfaer was also an original investor in the Brewers.

Children from the three Brewers primary youth baseball leagues were on hand in August, 2001 to turn the dirt at the groundbreaking ceremony. The Little Brewers League, Girls of Summer Softball League and the Brewers RBI (Reviving Baseball in the Inner-City) are the three avenues the Brewers offer children from ages 6-17 to play softball and baseball in Wisconsin with over 3,000 taking part statewide. Helfaer Field opened on May 31, 2002 and has been used by hundreds of teams and thousands of children since its inception.

Helfaer Field is available for organized athletic events. The emphasis is primarily to make Helfaer Field available for youth baseball (5-12) and girls softball. However, Helfaer Field is also be available for other groups and uses as well.

On non-Brewers game dates, there will be five time slots of two hours each available for rental. On Brewers night game home dates, there will be two time slots at two hours each available at 9:00 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. Helfaer Field will not be available on Brewers day game home dates.

Reservation forms are available at the Brewers offices as well as on the club's website at www.milwaukeebrewers.com. Forms may be returned in person, by fax to 414-902-4056, by e-mail to amy.zettel@milwaukeebrewers.com or by mail to Amy Zettel, Milwaukee Brewers, Miller Park, One Brewers Way, Milwaukee, WI 53214.

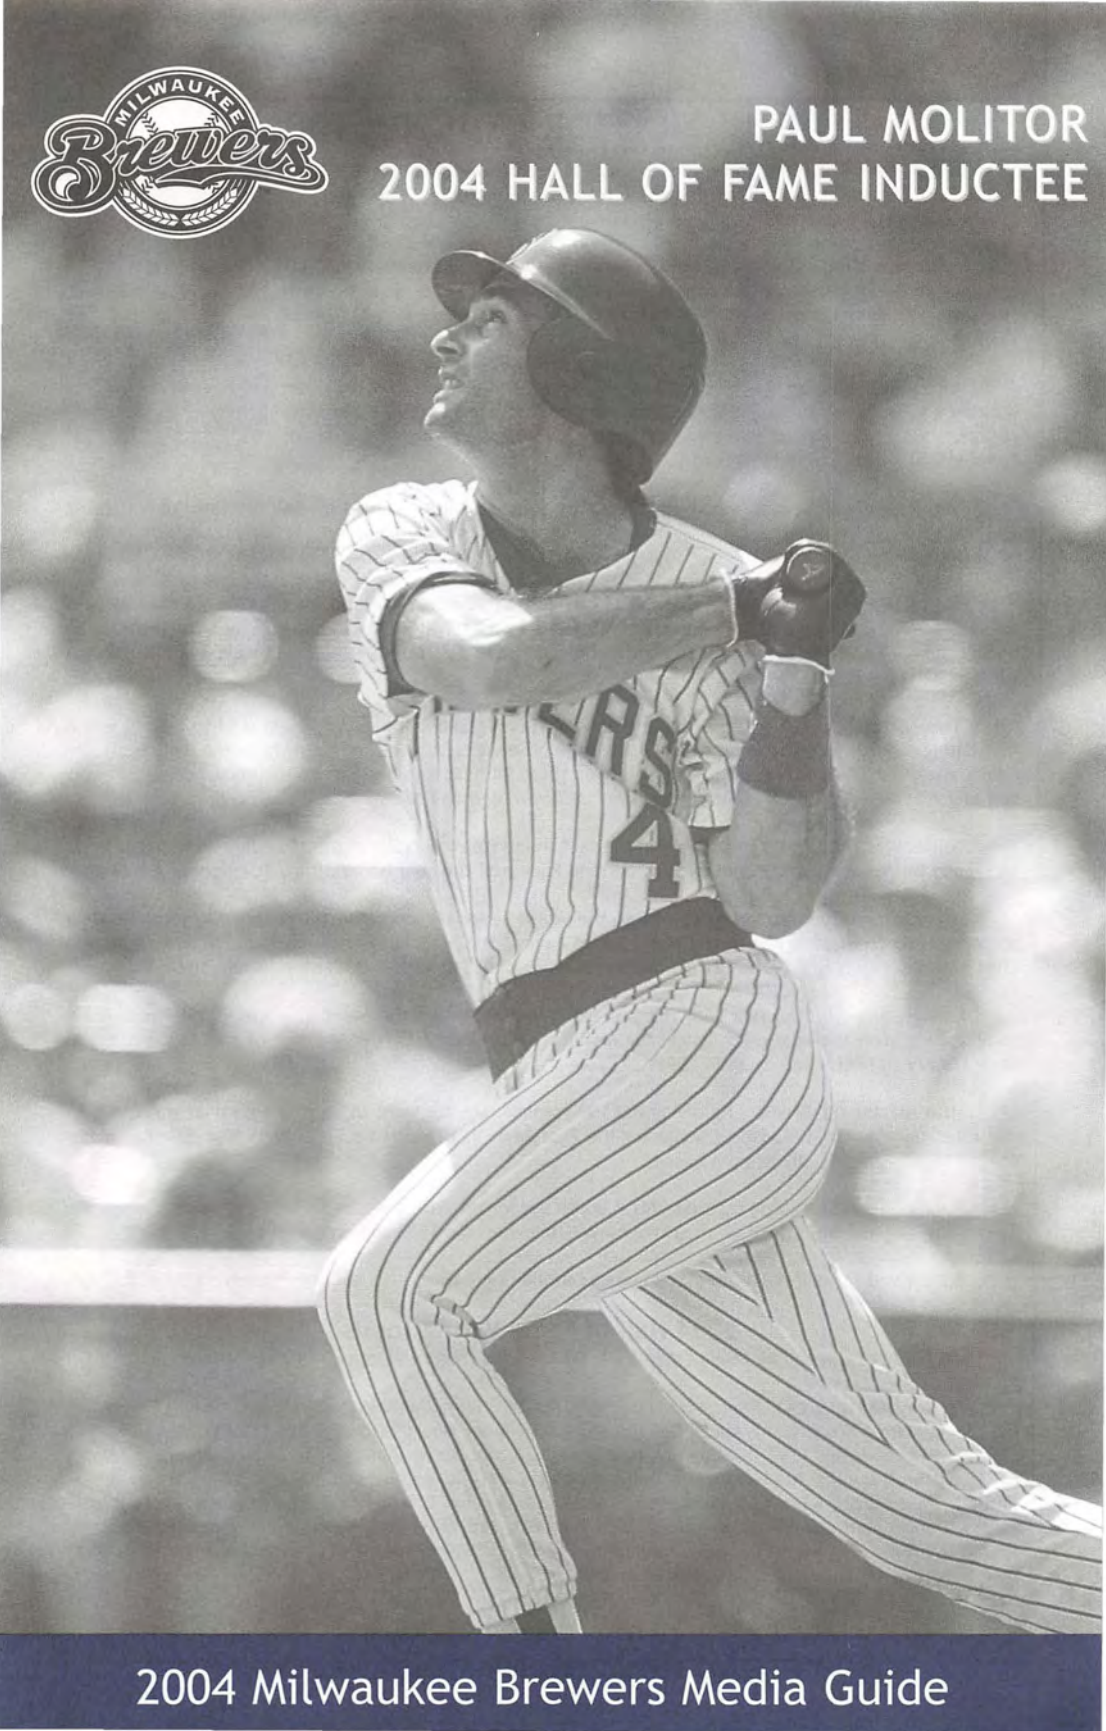
Helfaer FieldSUNDAYS

Beginning in May, the Milwaukee Brewers will offer fans a free chance to enjoy Helfaer Field on Sundays when the club is at home

Helfaer Field Sundays will give fans of all ages a chance to enjoy baseball's premier youth baseball facility. The ballpark will be open from 10:30 a.m. until game time on all Sundays when the Brewers play at Miller Park during the 2004 season.

Families will be able to utilize the patios for tailgating prior to Brewers games. Kids and adults alike will be able to go out and throw the ball around in the outfield at Helfaer Field. Bats will not be allowed.

Helfaer Field opened to the public on May 31, 2002 as Wisconsin's premier youth baseball and softball facility.



2004 Milwaukee Brewers Media Guide

PAUL MOLITOR - THE IGNITOR

Paul Molitor, who spent 15 seasons in a Milwaukee Brewers uniform, has been elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame by the Baseball Writers Association of America, it was announced on January 6, 2004.

Molitor received 431 votes (85.2%) easily surpassing the 75% mark needed for entrance to Baseball's shrine in Cooperstown, New York. He will be joined in this year's Hall of Fame class by pitcher Dennis Ecklersley who received 421 votes (83.2%).

Molitor will be just the second Brewers player to enter the Hall of Fame wearing a Milwaukee cap joining Robin Yount who was inducted in 1999. Legendary radio announcer Bob Uecker was enshrined in the broadcasting wing of the Hall of Fame in 2003 after earning the Ford C. Frick Award.

"The Ignitor", as he was known for his ability to start rallies, played for the Brewers from 1978-92 and still ranks at or near the top in every offensive category in team history. He had his uniform number "4" retired on July 11, 1999.

One of the greatest players in baseball history, Molitor ranks eighth on the all-time list for hits with 3,319. He had 2,281 hits in a Brewers uniform (second in team history) including 405 doubles (second), 86 triples (second) and 160 home runs (seventh). He also drove in 790 runs (third) and stole 412 bases (first) while playing for Milwaukee.

"This certainly comes as no surprise that Paul was elected," said Yount. "I am glad to hear it was a first ballot election because I had heard it might be otherwise. Anybody who saw him on a daily basis like I did knows he's a Hall of Famer. I will put him up there with George Brett on consistency, because I never saw anyone other than he and George experience day in and day out success."

Molitor was chosen by the Brewers in the first round (third overall) of the 1977 June Free Agent Draft and made his Major League debut in 1978 earning Rookie of the Year honors from The Sporting News.

In 1982, he helped lead the Brewers to the World Series by scoring a club record 136 runs. He then posted seven consecutive hits in the World Series against the St. Louis Cardinals. In the American League Championship Series and World Series, he combined to bat .340 with two home runs and eight RBI.

A seven-time All-Star, five with the Brewers, Molitor thrilled the baseball world in 1987 with a 39-game hitting streak, the seventh longest in Major League history. He became one of just four players in team history to hit for the cycle in 1991.

After leaving the Brewers following the 1992 season, Molitor went to Toronto where he was the Most Valuable Player in the 1993 World Series for the Blue Jays. In 1994, he became the oldest player in Major League history to steal 20 straight bases.

Finally, in 1996, Molitor recorded his 3,000th career hit with a triple on September 16 against the Kansas City Royals. He retired as an active player following the 1998 season.

Molitor will formally take his place among baseball's greatest stars in Cooperstown on July 25, 2004.

ROOF
- Batted ball strikes roof, roof truss, or roof cable over fair territory:
  - Ball shall be judged fair or foul in relation to where it strikes the ground or is touched by a fielder.
  - If caught by fielder, batter is out and runners advance at own risk.
- Batted ball strikes roof, roof truss, or roof cable over foul territory:
  - Ball shall be judged foul, regardless of where it strikes the ground or is touched by a fielder.
  - If caught by fielder, batter is out and runners advance at own risk.

The decision as to whether a game begins with the roof open or closed rests solely with the Milwaukee Brewers.

If the game begins with the roof open:
- It shall be closed only in the event of impending rain or other adverse weather conditions. The decision to close the roof shall be made by the Brewers, after consultation with the Umpire Crew Chief.
- The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the decision if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.
- Once the roof is closed during a game, it may be reopened, by following the procedures for opening the roof as detailed below.

If the game begins with the roof closed:
- It may be opened when, in the opinion of the Brewers, the climatic environment has reached a level where fan comfort and enjoyment will be best served by opening the roof to the natural atmospheric conditions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following guidelines should be applied opening the roof during a game.
  - The opening of the roof shall only commence between whole innings.
  - The Umpire Crew Chief will be notified at the commencement of the inning that the roof will be opened at the inning's conclusion.
  - The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.

2003 HIGHLIGHTS

Opened 2003 with Triple A Tucson for the second straight year, but this time the interruption was the result of a promotion, not an injury . . . began the season with three consecutive no-decisions, though he did not allow more than three earned runs in any of the starts . . . was recalled on May 4 when Stephen Randolph was disabled and made his big league debut that day vs. Atlanta . . . was his first relief appearance as a pro after beginning his career with 58 consecutive starts . . . in a strange twist, his first big league appearance came exactly one year to the day after being forced from a game against Colorado Springs due to an elbow injury that required "Tommy John" ligament replacement surgery . . . followed the loss to the Braves with 1.1 hitless innings against Philadelphia on May 7 . . . made his first big league start on May 17 vs Pittsburgh, on the one-year anniversary of his surgery . . . suffered an 8-5 loss to the Bucs, allowing seven runs on six hits in 4.2 innings . . . optioned back to Tucson following the game and went 4-0 with a 2.40 ERA giving up two earned runs or less in each of his next seven outings . . . named the organization's Pitcher-of-the-Month for June, after going 4-0 with a 1.78 ERA in five starts for Tucson, tossing 30.1 innings with 28 strikeouts while limiting opponents to a .198 average . . . placed on the disabled list from June 14-23 with a left shoulder strain . . . recalled on July 9 for a start vs San Diego, notching his first big league win by limiting the Padres to an unearned run on three hits over 7.0 innings with eight punchouts with an 8-3 victory . . . optioned back to Tucson on July 10 . . . went 0-3 in his next four starts for the Sidewinders, despite owning a 3.42 ERA over that stretch . . . finished the Triple A season with a team high 108 strikeouts over his 23 starting assignments . . . named the lefthanded starting pitcher on the All-Pacific Coast League team with an overall 9-5 mark and 3.34 ERA, while holding opposing teams to three earned runs or less in 19 of 23 starts . . . recalled once again as part of the September roster expansion, and made his third big league start on September 2 at San Diego, losing a 6-3 decision allowing five runs over 3.2 innings . . . returned to the pen and tossed 2.0 scoreless frames of one-hit ball at San Francisco on September 7, then got the starting nod on September 11 vs the Dodgers when Curt Schilling came down with a stiff neck . . . matched his career high with 7.0 scoreless frames of three-hit ball, fanning four and walking none in the 2-0 decision over Los Angeles . . . following another relief outing, wrapped up his season with another start in place of Schilling, absorbing a 3-2 defeat to the Cardinals on September 27 . . . finished 2-3 with a 5.06 ERA in five big league starts while going 0-1 with a 2.84 ERA over four relief appearances.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2002: Began the season as one of the top starters before succumbing to the disabled list . . . Tucson was victorious in five of the six games he started with the lone setback a tough 2-1 defeat in his only road start on April 19 at Calgary . . . his season came to an end on May 4 vs Colorado Springs as an elbow injury forced him from the game after 7.1 scoreless innings, a contest Tucson eventually won 7-6 in the 12th inning . . . was placed on the disabled list on May 6 with a left elbow strain . . . had "Tommy John" ligament replacement surgery performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, Alabama on May 17.

2001: Tied for the Texas League lead with 28 starts . . . also ranked among leaders in strikeouts (tied-second), shutouts (tied-second), strikeouts per nine-innings (third-9.43), complete games (fourth), and innings (fifth) . . . lost his first four decisions and was 1-6 with a 6.80 ERA through May 12 . . . fanned a season-high 10 batters in 5-4 loss to Arkansas on May 7 . . . tossed back-to-back shutouts on June 2-7 at Wichita (seven innings) and at Tulsa . . . was 3-0 with a 3.00 ERA over four starts from June 2-21 . . . struck out at least seven batters in 13 of 28 starts . . . played for the Scottsdale Scorpions of the Arizona Fall League, posting a 2-3 mark with a save and a 4.05 ERA in seven games, striking out 26 in 20.0 innings . . . got his first taste of Major League camp, working with the big league club as a non-roster invitee to spring training.

2000: He missed the first two months of the season while completing his degree at Duke University . . . joined South Bend in June and still led the pitching staff in wins (10) and ERA (2.21) . . . finished third among Midwest League starters with a .193 opponents' average . . . went 3-2 with a 2.25 ERA in July as he shared the organizational Pitcher-of-the-Month award with Jason Martines . . . won the award outright in August posting a 4-1 mark and 0.80 ERA . . . allowed two earned runs or fewer in 15 of 18 starts . . . closed the year going 7-1 with a 1.05 ERA (6 er/51.2 ip) over his last nine starts, highlighted by a 23.0 inning scoreless streak that was snapped in the final inning of his final start . . . recorded a season-high 12 strikeouts in his last start on September 2 . . . played in nine games for the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League, going 1-0 with 18 punchouts in 12.0 innings.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

2003: Acquired by the Milwaukee Brewers along with catcher Chad Moeller, infielders Craig Counsell, Lyle Overbay, Junior Spivey and pitcher Jorge De La Rosa in exchange for infielder Richie Sexson and pitcher Shane Nance and a player to be named (Noochie Varner) on December 1.

Resides: Mequon, WI
Height: 6-0 Weight: 184
Major League Service: 6 years, 37 days
How Acquired: From the Arizona Diamondbacks along with catcher Chad Moeller, infielders Junior Spivey and Lyle Overbay, and pitchers Chris Capuano and Jorge de la Rosa in exchange for infielder Richie Sexson, pitcher Shane Nance and a player to be named later (Noochie Varner) on December 1, 2003.
Contract Status: Signed thru the 2005 season.

2003 HIGHLIGHTS

Had only a month of play under his belt when a dislocated right thumb sidelined him until early-July after which he struggled to regain his hitting stroke . . . entered the spring in rehabilitation mode and made great strides rebounding from season-ending neck surgery in 2002, but while breaking up a double play on May 6 against the Phillies, dislocated his right thumb on the slide into second base . . . placed on the disabled list on May 7 and underwent surgery by Dr. Don Sheridan the following day to repair the ligament damage . . . saw action at all four infield positions, starting 49 games at third base, 18 at shortstop and seven at second base and taking over defensively at first base for a pair of contests . . . broke out of a season-opening 0-10 slide on April 7 in Los Angeles, singling in the sixth, tripling home Matt Williams in the seventh, and singling in the 12th to set the stage for Lyle Overbay's game-winning pinch homer . . . the three-hit affair launched his first of two nine-game hitting streaks, during which he posted a .333 average . . . assumed the leadoff duties on April 16 against the Rockies and went 2-for-3 with two walks and two runs . . . matched a career-high with four RBI in the opener of the April 27 twinbill in New York . . . he and wife, Michelle, welcomed their first child, son Brady Michael, on May 3, then Craig arrived at the park in time to go 2-3 with two walks and two runs against Atlanta . . . hit a solo homer, his first of the season, off Brandon Duckworth in the fifth frame on May 6 against the Phillies, but suffered the disabling injury later that night . . . at the time of the injury, Craig was in the midst of a five-game hitting streak (.400, 8-25) and had reached base safely in 12 straight games . . . hit leadoff in 20 consecutive games leading up to the injury, batting .300 (24-80) with 16 runs and 15 walks . . . led off eight of those 20 contests with a walk (four times) or a hit (four times - three singles, double) and scored on seven of those occasions . . . was activated from the D.L. on July 7 and went 1-for-4 as the starting shortstop, his first of 15 consecutive starts through July 24 . . . hit safely in his first four games back to stretch his hitting streak to a season-high tying nine games (.378, 14-37) . . . homered in back-to-back games for the first time in his career on July 8 and 9 . . . the leadoff homer off the Rockies' Denny Neagle on July 8 was Counsell's first as a D'Back . . . the roundtripper was also his first career regular season blast off a southpaw (he homered off Cardinal lefty Mike Matthews in Game #3 of the 2001 Division Series on October 12 in St. Louis) . . . had three hits on July 27 against the Dodgers, then went into a 14-88 slump (.159) over his next 33 games . . . moved from third to first base defensively in the seventh inning on July 14 in Cincinnati, his third career game action at first base and first since June 8, 2001, in Kansas City . . . on September 4 in Kansas City, he pinch ran and scored the tying run in the eighth inning then singled and scored the eventual game-winning run on Lyle Overbay's pinch single in the tenth . . . concluded the season by hitting safely in seven straight games at a .300 clip (9-30).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2002: Easily the team's most valuable position player during the first half of the season, Craig took full advantage of the opportunities given to him due to injuries to veteran infielders Matt Williams and Jay Bell, but wound up on the shelf himself as the Diamondbacks made their run to a second straight Western Division title . . . sidelined from August 9 through the end of the season due to a herniated disk in his neck that required surgery on September 18 by Dr. Drew Dossett in Dallas, TX, the same surgeon that repaired fellow Notre Dame alum Raghib Ismail of the Dallas Cowboys . . . the surgery on Counsell was deemed a success as the numbness and tingling he had experienced disappeared within hours of the procedure . . . though there was no single play that attributed to the injury, Craig began experiencing numbness in his right arm on August 9, the day after making one of the more spectacular diving plays of any season on a Henry Blanco line shot in the second inning of a game against the Braves . . . Counsell finished that afternoon going 1-for-4 in what wound up as his final game of the year . . . when healthy, Craig was the focal point of the Arizona offense while also providing outstanding defensive play . . . established a career-high for RBI with 51 in 112 games, 11 more than he had with Florida in 1998 and 13 more than he posted in 141 games for Arizona in 2001 . . . also hit .364 with runners in scoring position (40-for-110) which was third best in the National League at the time his season ended, highlighted by a .413 mark (26-for-63) with less than two out in the inning . . . opened the year as the starting third baseman after the D'Backs broke camp without either Williams or Bell, responded by hitting .329 through the first 13 games . . . experienced his longest drought of the year going four games without a hit (0-12) before hitting safely in 14 of the next 17 games at a .343 clip (23-67) from April 20-May 8 . . . tied a team record with five hits against the Dodgers on May 26, the club that released him in the spring of 2000, giving him the opportunity to join the Diamondbacks . . . the five-hit effort closed out a five-game stretch in which Craig was 12-24 (.500) with eight runs and five RBI . . . later tacked on a four-hit game on June 22 against Toronto . . . had another solid month from June 21-July 21, hitting .346 (37-107) in a 26-game stretch, highlighted by a pair of terrific road trips . . . combined stops in Houston, Cleveland, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Colorado and San Diego during that 26-game period to hit .379 (25-for-66) over the 19 road games . . . included was his third career four-RBI game on June 27 in Houston . . . provided Arizona with one of its biggest swings of the year, hitting a ninth-inning game-tying pinch-hit home run off the Mets' Armando Benitez in the first game of the August 3 doubleheader in Shea Stadium, a contest the D'Backs wound up winning 8-5 in 10 innings and propelling the club to a four-game sweep in New York . . . it was Counsell's first pinch-hit at-bat of the season and his first-ever pinch homer in 73 career at bats . . . made 88 starts at third base, with the majority of that work coming prior to the All-Star break when Williams was out with a fractured ankle . . . also started 11 games at shortstop and 10 at second base.

2001: Established career highs in virtually every offensive category including games (141), at bats (458), runs (76) and hits (126) . . . finished the year strong, hitting in 25 of his last 27 starts at a .324 clip (35-108) with 19 runs, nine doubles and 15 RBI . . . the 25 games he hit safely in during that stretch were consecutive starting assignments from August 28-October 4 . . . the stretch began with a career-high 12-game hitting streak which was snapped when he struck out after entering a game on September 17 as a defensive replacement . . . entered the starting lineup the next night and began a new hitting streak that lasted 13 games to trump his 12-gamer as a career-best . . . opened the season starting only three of Arizona's first 20 games, appearing mainly as a pinch hitter or a late-inning defensive replacement . . . became a staple in the lineup in mid-May when Matt Williams went down with a pair of leg injuries, spending nearly three straight weeks as the starting third baseman . . . Jay Bell moved to the hot corner in early-June and Counsell took over the majority of the chores at second . . . his transfer around the infield continued in late-July when he began working at shortstop with the emergence of Junior Spivey at second base . . . started 124 games, including 56 at short, 46 at second and 22 at third, committing only eight errors all year . . . got his first taste at first base, playing a couple of innings there during the first half of the season . . . batted .300 (71-237) in the leadoff spot . . . recorded seven of Arizona's nine bunt hits during the 2001 season . . . though not known for home runs, Counsell's fourth and final blast of the year staked Arizona to a 6-5 win over Colorado on June 30, entering the game defensively in the seventh and snapping a 5-5 tie in the eighth with a solo shot off Kane Davis . . . was 4-8 with four walks and a hit by pitch in the pinch.

2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Made his second successful career trip to the post-season, playing in 16 of Arizona's 17 games . . . closed out the 1997 Fall Classic by scoring the winning run for the Marlins in the 11th inning of Game #7 vs the Indians, then in his next World Series plate appearance four years later, scored Arizona's first run in its World Series by homering in the first inning of Game #1 off the Yanks' Mike Mussina . . . unfortunately it was Counsell's last hit in the Series until the third inning of Game #7, an overall 0-19 drought . . . despite the dry spell against the Yankees, Craig still contributed to the cause by tying a 95-year old World Series record with sacrifice bunts in his first three plate appearances in Game #4 at New York, matching Joe Tinker's performance with the Cubs in the 1906 series . . . Counsell was also in the middle of the title clinching heroics in the ninth inning of Game #7, getting hit by a Mariano Rivera pitch to load the bases just ahead of Luis Gonzalez's series ending hit . . . coming off an MVP performance against the Braves in the NLCS, having been voted the honor after hitting .381 (8-21) with five runs scored, three doubles and four RBI while providing outstanding defense in the five-game set . . . he was a modest 2-8 in the two games played in Phoenix then recorded back-to-back three-hit efforts in games three and four at Turner Field, including two doubles and four RBI in the 11-4 triumph that gave the D'Backs a 3-1 series lead . . . hit .188 in the Division Series against the Cardinals, but one of the hits provided the margin of victory for the Diamondbacks in Game #3 at Busch Stadium, a two-out, three-run home run off lefthander Mike Matthews that staked Arizona to a 5-3 lead.

2000: Released by the Dodgers in spring training and signed a minor league contract with Arizona on March 20 . . . hit .348 with Triple A Tucson before his contract was purchased on May 31 . . . didn't see much action as a regular until the waning days of the season when he started 12 of the last 15 games . . . hit .377 (26-for-69) in his last 19 starts . . . hit .333 (40-for-120) when employed in the starting lineup (33 total starts) . . . recorded his second career four-hit game in his second start as a Diamondback, reaching base five times on June 4 at Texas featuring a double, home run and a walk . . . was the first Diamondback in franchise history to reach on catchers interference when he made contact with Colorado catcher Ben Petrick to begin the game on September 25 in Coors Field.

1999: Opened the year with Florida, but hit just .152 in 37 games and was traded to the Dodgers on June 15 in exchange for minor league pitcher Ryan Moskau . . . the deal made Counsell the seventh member of the '97 World Champion Marlins to become a Dodger (Kevin Brown, Bobby Bonilla, Jim Eisenreich, Gary Sheffield, Devon White and Charles Johnson).

1998: Started the year in the majors for the first time in his career, but had his season cut short on one pitch at Pro Player Stadium on August 3, suffering a compound displaced fracture of his jaw bone when he was hit on the right side of his face by a pitch from Houston's C.J. Nitkowski . . . underwent surgery at Holy Cross Hospital in Fort Lauderdale where he had several lacerations repaired and had his jaw bone internally stabilized by Dr. James Driscoli (oral surgeon) and Dr. Roberto Palma (plastic surgeon) . . . had established himself prior to the injury committing only five errors in 539 chances at second base and earning a spot on The Sporting News N.L. East All-Star team . . . hit his second career grand slam on April 16 in Florida off Phillies hurler Tyler Green.

1997: Capped a storybook season by going from the minors in one organization to scoring the game-winning run in the bottom of the 11th inning in Game #7 of the World Series for another organization . . . began the year with Colorado Springs, his third season with the Rockies' Triple A affiliate, then after a one-game stint with the big league club, he was traded to the Marlins for pitcher Mark Hutton on July 27 where his career took an upward turn . . . batted .299 in 51 games for Florida and continued his outstanding second half in the post-season, batting .293 with a .429 OBP . . . not only scored the deciding run in the '97 Series against Cleveland, but his sacrifice fly in the bottom of the ninth sent the contest into extra innings . . . collected his first big league hit off then Cincinnati hurler Mike Morgan in his first big league start on July 29 . . . later added his first Major League home run on August 24 off then St. Louis hurler Todd Stottlemyre, which was also a grand slam.

1996: Injuries limited him to just 25 games with Colorado Springs, suffering a right shin contusion that led to a stress fracture on April 30 . . . returned to action in mid-July but appeared in just three games before fracturing the same shin on July 17 and missing the rest of the season.

1995: Hit .281 as the regular shortstop for the PCL Champion Colorado Springs Sky Sox, leading the league in total chances (598) and doubles plays (86) . . . earned his first recall to the Majors on September 15, appearing in three games.

1994: Injuries once again impeded Craig's progress, starting the year with Double A New Haven on May 3 after suffering a broken right foot due to a spring training foul ball . . . played until breaking his nose on July 29, tried to make a comeback a week later picking up a hit in his lone at bat . . . returned to the disabled list for the remainder of the season.

1993: Topped all California League shortstops in total chances (621), while leading his Class A Central Valley club in doubles (26) and ranking second on the club with 132 hits.

1992: An 11th round selection in Colorado's first-ever draft class, Counsell opened the year as Class A Bend's second baseman, the first time he'd ever played that position . . . his year was cut short when he suffered a broken right instep on a foul ball just 18 games into the season.

2003 HIGHLIGHTS

Opened the year sharing the catching chores with Rod Barajas, but an offensive slump combined with the emergence of Robby Hammock severely cut into his playing time in the second half . . . appeared in 57 games prior to the All-Star break, hitting .309, which ranked fourth on the club among players with 50 or more games played . . . the second-half was not as fulfilling as he made just 21 appearances, including 16 starts, over the final 69 tilts and went just 6-for-51 (.118) as his average dropped to .268 . . . after an injury put Barajas on the shelf just a week into the season, he batted .339 in 16 starts as the everyday catcher with five doubles and three homers . . . hit safely in career-best seven straight games April 20 - 29 . . . return of Barajas on April 28 resulted in him appearing in only nine of the next 25 games, including eight starts, while batting .250 . . . had a six-game hitting streak from May 28 - June 8 . . . recorded second career stolen base on June 11 in Kansas City, first since June 26, 2000, while with Minnesota . . . established season-high with three RBI July 3 in Colorado . . . tied a club record with three doubles against the Giants on July 11 . . . opened the second-half with a 2-5, two RBI game July 17 at Qualcomm Stadium, lacing a two-run triple in the fifth inning, his fourth career triple and first since August 27, 2002, at LA . . . hit his seventh and final home run of the year on September 23 in Colorado off Jason Young, his final at bat of the season and first homer since taking Young deep on July 3 at Coors Field . . . closed out the season with four hits in his final 46 at bats (.087) to drop his final average to .268.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2002: Hit .432 (16-for-37) in his last 16 games, including a huge season-ending contest to aid Arizona's effort to gain the home field advantage in the Division Series . . . starting the final game of the year to catch former Triple A battery-mate John Patterson, Moeller was 4-4 with three runs scored, a double, two homers and six RBI . . . was his first career four-hit and multi-homer game, while the six RBI tied Steve Finley and Luis Gonzalez for the second best single-game performance in team history, trailing only Erubiel Durazo's nine-RBI affair on May 17 . . . the first home run of the game was his first in the Majors since September 27, 2001, a span of 107 at bats . . . opened the season on the big league roster, but was designated for assignment on April 9 without appearing in a game . . . cleared waivers and played at an All-Star caliber level for Triple A Tucson before receiving the call-up to the big league club in mid-July, where he remained . . . received the call-up on July 15 when Damian Miller was placed on the disabled list . . . started as Randy Johnson's catcher on July 16 . . . closed the year by catching the Big Unit's final 17 starting assignments with Johnson going 12-2 in that span . . . was outstanding against righthanded pitching batting .338 with all 11 of his doubles . . . threw out 3 of 17 opposing base thieves . . . while with Tucson, drove in four runs on May 24 vs Omaha and on June 6 at Fresno . . . raised his average 30 points from .286 to .316 on May 28 with a 4-4 effort . . . had a 10-game hitting streak from May 30 - June 14, batting .452 . . . average reached as high as .356 on June 13 . . . selected to the Pacific Coast League squad at the Triple-A All-Star game as a back-up catcher, but was unable to participate due to minor foot surgery although the surgery did not result in any missed playing time other than the All-Star Game . . . was named the D'Backs Organizational Player-of-the-Month for June after hitting .329 with 15 runs, four doubles, five homers and 24 RBI in 20 contests . . . excelled at the dish with runners in scoring position during his Triple A work, batting .365 with four homers and 39 RBI . . . appeared in all three games of the Division Series against the St. Louis Cardinals going 2-5 at the plate . . . was 1-3 as the starting catcher in the series opener, then pinch hit in the last two games of the set, singling in Game #2.

2001: Acquired from the Twins in exchange for infielder Hanley Frias just as the D'Backs were breaking camp in Tucson and preparing for the start of the season . . . opened the season with Tucson then was summoned to the big league club for the first time on June 6, making nine starts and providing a trio of two-hit games in that span . . . first RBI as a Diamondback was a suicide squeeze bunt that drove home David Dellucci on June 20 in Los Angeles . . . optioned back to Tucson on July 16, finishing up the year with the Sidewinders before rejoining the big league club as part of the September roster expansion . . . caught Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling in consecutive wins on September 27 and 28 over the Brewers and Dodgers, respectively, while combining to go 3-6 at the plate . . . connected for his first home run as a D'Back in the win over Milwaukee, hitting a solo shot to left off Ruben Quevedo . . . was his second career big league homer, but first to exit the yard as his initial roundtrip-

2002: Became a National League All-Star after making the club in spring training with help from injuries to both Matt Williams and Jay Bell . . . led the Diamondbacks in hitting (.301), runs scored (103), hits (162), doubles (34) and hit by pitches (16), while finishing third on the club in RBI (78) and tied for third in homers (16) . . . was the Opening Day second baseman . . . during the course of the season, batted in every spot in the order . . . hit safely in eight straight games from April 16-25, batting .533 (16-30) with 11 runs, four doubles, two homers and six RBI to up his season average to .373 . . . average tapered off to .323 after play on May 14 as he recovered from a mild rib cage strain that limited his play for three days . . . hit his first career walk-off home run, a game-ending tape measure blast off Philly's Jose Mesa on May 18, measuring 461-feet . . . had an 18-game hitting streak from May 31-July 4, with an injury being the only thing to slow him down . . . had hit safely in nine straight games before suffering a right hamstring strain while rounding third base on June 10 in Yankee Stadium . . . the injury came the day after he recorded the first inside-the-park home run in his career, the second in Diamondbacks history, racing around the bases in Fenway Park on June 9 . . . it was the first inside-the-parker by a Fenway visitor since June 2, 1989 (Junior Felix) . . . despite missing 15 days with the hamstring injury, didn't miss a beat upon his return, hitting safely in nine more games to extend the hitting streak to a 2002 team-high 18 games . . . during the streak he batted .371 (26-70) with 18 runs and 10 RBI . . . was 0-2 in the All-Star Game in Milwaukee . . . average dipped below the .300 mark for the first time since April 16 after going 0-4 on September 20 in Colorado, but he remedied that by finishing the season hitting .342 (13-38) in the last nine games featuring 10 runs, three homers and seven RBI . . . batted .154 (2-13) in the National League Division Series against St. Louis.

2001: Recalled from Tucson on June 2 and brought an infusion of speed and solid defense at second base when called upon . . . was on base four times in his first start on June 7 vs. the Dodgers, walking twice before delivering his first big league hit with a sixth inning single off Gregg Olson . . . finished up a memorable initial start with a solo homer off veteran Jesse Orosco in the eighth as Arizona posted a 13-9 win over their NL West rivals . . . became just the fifth rookie since 1954 to record a pair of five-hit games in starts against a pair of baseball's elite hurlers while joining Wally Moon (1954 St. Louis Cardinals), Ken Hubbs (1962 Chicago Cubs), Rico Carty (1964 Milwaukee Braves) and Chris Singleton (1999 Chicago White Sox) . . . first five-hit effort was in Coors Field on June 21 going 5-6 with a triple, three runs and three RBI . . . duplicated the feat on August 12 in Atlanta going 5-5 with three runs, with four of those hits coming off Greg Maddux . . . the five-hit games were the only ones recorded by a Diamondbacks hitter in 2001 and tied the club mark set initially by Tony Batista and tied later by Travis Lee and Greg Colbrunn . . . reached base safely via a hit or walk in his first 13 major league starts and 25 of his first 26 starting assignments, hitting .337 in that span (32-95) with 16 walks.

2000: Had another bout with the disabled list that kept his game tally down to just 28 for Triple A Tucson and six games at El Paso . . . opened the season going 8-16 at the plate . . . recorded the first multi-homer game of his pro career on April 27 at Salt Lake, knocking in five runs in a 16-7 Tucson victory . . . first bout with a left hamstring injury that would haunt him all year took place on May 7 in a game against Salt Lake, sending him to the disabled list until June 14 . . . when activated, he was sent to Double A El Paso where he went 8-19 with five doubles and a home run in just five games before tearing the left hamstring on June 22 at San Antonio . . . appeared as a pinch hitter two nights later but did not get an at bat and his season subsequently ended.

1999: Participated in just 44 games for Double A El Paso . . . season didn't begin until May 15, missing the first six weeks due to a ligament tear in his left thumb that occurred in spring training and required surgery . . . once healthy, managed to bat .293 before requiring surgery to repair the hamate bone in his left hand, ending his season.

1998: Combined stops in Class A High Desert and Double A Tulsa and accumulated an organization-leading 42 stolen bases and 92 walks . . . was Arizona's Minor League Player of the Month for May, hitting .337 with seven RBI and 12 stolen bases while with the Mavericks, earning a spot in the California League All-Star Game, but a finger sprain prevented his participation . . . after hitting .281 in 79 games for High Desert, he made the move to Double A, playing on loan with Tulsa of the Texas organization . . . hit .311 for Tulsa, but was most impressive in the postseason, hitting .342 in 10 playoff games as the Drillers won the Texas League title.

1997: Spent the entire season at Class A High Desert, hitting .273 for the California League champs . . . best stretch was a 16-game hitting streak from July 29-August 15 . . . after a hitless game ended the 16-gamer, he immediately began a 10-game string.

1996: Pro career started with the Phoenix (Rookie) club, ranking second in the league with a .333 batting average, while leading the circuit with 11 stolen bases . . . earned Organizational Player of the Month for June, then was promoted to Rookie-level Lethbridge.

2003 Robin Yount Performance Award for Minor League Player of the Year
Prince Fielder - Beloit

Led the Beloit Snappers to the Midwest League championship series hitting .313 with 27 home runs and a league-best 112 runs batted in during the regular season. Fielder followed by batting .371 with seven RBI in nine playoff games. He also began the season with a 10-game hitting streak before hitting in a career-high 18 consecutive games from July 7-26 batting .361 during the streak. Honored with several awards following the 2003 season as he was named Minor League Player of the Year by USA Today as well as Midwest League Most Valuable Player and Prospect of the Year. Additionally, Prince was named to the Midwest League mid-season and post-season All-Star teams as well as as the Midwest League All-Teen team, the All-Prospect team by Sportsticker and the Midwest League Low Class A All-Star team by Baseball America.

2003 Robin Yount Performance Award for Minor League Pitcher of the Year
Luis Martinez - Huntsville/Indianapolis/Milwaukee

Martinez began the season in Double A Huntsville where he went 8-5 with a 2.58 ERA in 20 starts for the Stars. Honored as the Southern League Pitcher of the Week for April 11-17 when he struck out 14 in two starts spanning 12.0 shutout innings. Followed by being named the Brewers Pitcher of the Month for April when he posted a miniscule 0.31 ERA with 38 strikeouts in 29.0 innings pitched. Luis was promoted to Triple A Indianapolis in July making his debut with the Indians on July 24 at Richmond. With Indianapolis, he recorded a 4-0 mark alongside a 0.99 ERA which was highlighted by a 28.1 scoreless inning streak July 24 - August 15. In September, Martinez was recalled by the Brewers and made his Major League debut on September 3 vs Cincinnati stricking out Wily Mo Pena for his first Major League strikeout. With the Brewers, he pitched career-best 5.0 innings September 10 vs Houston and struck out career-high four batters on September 16 at St. Louis.

IndianapolisINDIANS

International League (AAA)
2003 Final Record: 64-78
Field Manager: Cecil Cooper

Despite going 46-44 over the season's final three months, the Indians couldn't overcome a slow start and finished 64-78 in fourth place in the IL West.

The Indians got off to a 19-34 start with a league-low .238 batting average in April and May, but rebounded in the final three months of the season hitting .276 over those three months and moving into eighth overall in the International League in batting.

Pete Zoccolillo was named Most Valuable Player after leading the team in games, walks, hits, doubles and runs batted in.

On the mound, the Indians were led by Pasqual Coco who posted a team-high 10 wins. Rob Giron led the team with 15 saves.

HuntsvilleSTARS

Southern League (AA)
2003 Final Record: 75-63
Runner-Up in Southern League Championship Series
First Half: 41-27, First Half Winner
Second Half: 34-36
Manager: Frank Kremblas

Led by Southern League Manager of the Year, Frank Kremblas and Southern League Most Valuable Player, Corey Hart, the Huntsville Stars won the first half of the season by seven games posting a 41-27 mark.

Huntsville was second in the second half of the season behind Birmingham but sought revenge on the Barons beating them in the Southern League West Division Championship Series.

The Stars pitching staff featured the league's top earned run average (3.17). Closer Mike Adams posted a 3.15 ERA and converted 14 of 18 save opportunities, including each of his last ten opportunities.

Huntsville sent seven representatives to the All-Star game (pitchers Luis Martinez, Mike Jones, Matt Parker and Mike Adams, who replaced Derek Lee after his promotion to Triple A Indianapolis; infielders Corey Hart and J.J. Hardy and outfielder Dave Krynzel) and had three players named to the year-end All-Star team (Hart, Hardy and Krynzel).

2004 Milwaukee Brewers Media Guide

• Thanks to the dedicated efforts of Milwaukee Brewers, Inc., an organization formed by Allan H. "Bud" Selig and Edmund Fitzgerald several years prior to the return of Major League Baseball to the city, the "Seattle Pilots" franchise was acquired April 1.
• Team renamed "Brewers" - a popular name in Milwaukee and a tribute to the city's long association with the Brewing industry.
• The Brewers, managed by Dave Bristol, acquired Russ Snyder and Max Alvis from the Cleveland Indians in exchange for outfielder Roy Foster, infielder Frank Coogins and cash in their first trade on April 4.
• The Brewers play their first game on April 7 as a member of the American League West before 37,237 enthusiastic fans at County Stadium as Lew Krausse drops a 12-0 decision to Andy Messersmith and the California Angels.
• John O'Donoghue defeats the White Sox, 8-4, in Chicago on April 11th for the team's first win.
• Bob Bolin fans 10 as the Brewers earn their first home win on May 6th over the Red Sox, 4-3.
• The 69-year-old Milt Mason, as "Bernie Brewer", goes into a trailer atop the stadium scoreboard in late June, vowing not to descend until the team draws a home crowd of 40,000, which occurs on August 16.
• Tommy Harper becomes the first American Leaguer to hit more than 30 homers and steal more than 30 bases during the same season with totals of 31 and 38, respectively.

• Famous Frank "Trader" Lane replaces Marvin Milkes as General Manager.
• Team wins first season opener on April 7, a 7-2 win at Minnesota, behind Marty Pattin.
• Bill Parsons is named Rookie Pitcher of the Year by The Sporting News.
• Ken Sanders appears in 83 games, winning seven and saving 31. He is named Fireman of the Year by The Sporting News.
• Brewers pull off a blockbuster deal during the World Series trading Pattin, Tommy Harper, Lew Krausse and Minor Leaguer Pat Skrable to Boston for George Scott, Jim Lonborg, Ken Brett, Joe Lahoud, Billy Conigliaro and Don Pavletich.
• With the shift of the Washington franchise to Texas, the Brewers move to the Eastern Division for the 1972 season.

1972

• A players strike, which delays the opening of the season, unusually bad summer weather and the performance of the team all contribute to a record-low attendance of 600,400.
• Dave Bristol is fired following the Brewers 9-3 loss at Boston on May 27.
• Del Crandall, a popular ex-player in Milwaukee, takes over.
• Team involved in 22-inning marathon against Twins on May 12, a game in which infielder Bob Heise bats 10 times.
• Skip Lockwood hurls a one-hitter against the Yankees on May 30th in Crandall's managerial debut.
• Jim Wilson is appointed General Manager in October, replacing Frank Lane.

1973

• Season opener is delayed four days after a 13-inch snowstorm blankets the city.
• In the most exciting season to date, the Brewers put together a 10-game winning streak in June, winning 15 of 16 during this span and occupying first place as late as June 19th.
• Team's new winning ways electrify Brewerland as Milwaukee cracks the million mark for the first time with a season total of 1,092,158.
• On a night when the Brewers win their 10th straight, Milwaukee fans rattle Don Newhauser with their wild cheering to the point that the Boston hurler walks in three straight runs.
• New Bernie Brewer, Bonnie Brewer and organist Frank Charles make their debuts as a fun atmosphere pervades County Stadium.
• Jim Colborn becomes the Brewers first 20-game winner tossing a three-hitter against New York (A) winning 5-2 on September 26 at County Stadium.

1974

• Robin Yount becomes the Brewers' regular shortstop at 18 years of age.
• Yount collects first big league hit, a single, on April 12, 1974, off Baltimore's Dave McNally at County Stadium.
• Don Money sets an ML record playing 78 consecutive errorless contests at third on July 7, 1974. Streak ends at 86 games.
• Royals' Steve Busby hurls a no-hitter at Milwaukee on June 19, the first AL gem at County Stadium.
• Jim Baumer is appointed the Director of Baseball Operations, replacing Jim Wilson, who takes over as Chief of Major League Scouting Bureau.

1975

• Baseball's Home Run King Hank Aaron returns to Milwaukee.
• On April 11, 48,160 salute Aaron on "Welcome Home, Henry" Day for the home opener vs Cleveland in a 6-2 Milwaukee win.
• Aaron's presence and a good start by the team helps increase season attendance to 1,213,357.
• Milwaukee hosts the Major League All-Star Game on July 15 as 51,480 see the National League win, 6-3.
• On September 28, the final day of the season, the Brewers announce that Del Crandall's contract would not be renewed.

1976

• Alex Grammas named manager because of "winning tradition." He is acquired from the World Champion Cincinnati Reds.
• Henry Aaron hits 755th home run on July 20 off California's Dick Drago in the seventh of a 6-2 Milwaukee victory.
• On September 17th, 40,383 fans turn out for Aaron night.
• Mike Hegan hits for the cycle at Detroit on September 3.
• Aaron singles off Detroit's Dave Roberts (3,771st hit) in final ML at bat driving in 2,297th run October 3 at County Stadium.
• Billy Travers, an All-Star, wins 15 games and Jerry Augustine is named to the All-Rookie Team.
• Looking for leadership in the off-season, the Brewers acquire Sal Bando in the first re-entry draft on November 4.

• George Scott and Bernie Carbo are traded to Boston for Cecil Cooper on December 6.

1977

• Crowd of 55,120 turns out for Opening Day in sunny 83 degree weather on April 12 to see Bill Travers lock horns with Jim Palmer in an old fashioned pitchers' duel. The Orioles edge the Brewers, 1-0.
• Cecil Cooper becomes the first Brewer to hit over .300 in four years.
• Harry Dalton replaces Baumer on November 20.

1978

• George Bamberger, pitching coach for the Baltimore Orioles, is appointed field manager on January 20.
• Brewers unveil new pinstripe uniforms and new team logo.
• Milwaukee batters hit three grand slams in sweeping the opening series against the Orioles April 7 - 9.
• Moose Haas fans 14 Yankees in a single game, including Reggie Jackson four times, on April 12 at County Stadium.
• "Bambi's Bombers", a power-packed wrecking crew, leads the American League in homers with 173 and tops the loop in six other offensive categories.
• Team wins 10 straight June 9 - 17 to make believers out of doubters.
• Brewers snap Ron Guidry's 13-game winning streak defeating the Yankee ace by a score of 6-0 on July 7 in Milwaukee.
• Mike Caldwell wins 22 games and becomes the first pitcher since Dean Chance in 1964 to blank the Yankees three times in one season.
• Bud Selig is named Executive of the Year by United Press International.
• George Bamberger is named Manager of the Year.
• Harry Dalton receives the General Manager of the Year Award.
• Paul Molitor is named the Rookie of the Year.
• Mike Caldwell is named Comeback Player of the Year.
• Robin Yount, Larry Hisle and Molitor are named to post-season All-Star teams.
• Don Money becomes the first Brewer ever voted into the starting lineup for the mid-season All-Star Game. Hisle and Lary Sorensen are also named to the squad.
• Brewers are named the top state sports story by the Associated Press and United Press International.
• Brewers draw 1,601,406 fans, nearly half a million more than the previous season and 400,000 better than previous record.

• "Bambi's Bombers" continue to roll as Gorman Thomas is crowned the AL Home Run Champion with 45 roundtrippers.
• Paul Molitor hits .322 and collects a club-record 16 triples.
• Brewers streak of 213 straight non-shutout games is broken on September 30 vs Minnesota.
• Brewers again named top state sports story by wire services.

• On March 6, Bambi suffers a mild heart attack, later requiring bypass surgery to correct his ailment.
• Bob "Buck" Rodgers assumes the role as acting manager until Bamberger returns on June 6.
• Sixto Lezcano becomes the first Major Leaguer to hit two Opening Day grand slams hitting his second April 10 vs Boston.
• A new scoreboard is unveiled at County Stadium, with capabilities to show instant replays, slow motion and animation.
• Club tops the Majors with 203 homers, 774 runs, 2,535 total bases and a .448 slugging percentage - all franchise records.
• Not since the 1948-49 Boston Red Sox has a team produced three players with 100 or more RBI in two consecutive seasons. In 1979 Gorman Thomas (123), Cecil Cooper (106) and Sixto Lezcano (101) became the first Milwaukee trio to go over 100 RBI in a season. This season, Cooper (122), Ben Oglivie (118) and Thomas (105) put the Brewers in the record books.
• Sal Bando drives in his 1,000th RBI in his hometown of Cleveland on April 29; Cecil Cooper collects his 1,000th hit on July 21 in New York; Reggie Cleveland wins his 100th game on July 25 in Baltimore; and probably the most remarkable feat of the year came on August 16, when Robin Yount becomes one of the youngest players to ever attain 1,000 hits. At the tender age of 24, Yount puts his name alongside such Hall of Fame notables as Ty Cobb and Al Kaline.
• In an effort to improve the ball club, General Manager Harry Dalton wheels and deals at the annual winter meetings, trading with the St. Louis Cardinals for All-Star Catcher Ted Simmons, steady starter Pete Vuckovich and the all-time save leader in baseball, Rollie Fingers. He also picks up third baseman Roy Howell in the Re-Entry Draft and later signs pitcher Randy Lerch, making the Brewers the team to beat in the East in 1981.

• In an interrupted season, it comes down to the first half-winners - New York - versus the second season winners - Milwaukee.
• Rollie Fingers establishes himself from the outset, earning a save in the season opener against Cleveland before an American League 1981 season-high crowd of 71,067 fans at Cleveland Stadium.
• His performance is unmatched as he posts a 6-3 record, a 1.04 ERA and a Major League high 28 saves in 47 appearances.
• Brewers secure first post-season spot in franchise history defeating Detroit 2-1 on October 3.
• For his efforts, Fingers becomes the first relief pitcher in Major League history to win both the Cy Young Award and the Most Valuable Player Award in the same season.
• In addition, Rollie earns his fourth Rolaids Relief Man of the Year Award, The Sporting News Fireman of the Year Award and the Joe Cronin Award for distinguished service.

• Picked as the favorite to capture the American League Eastern Division, the Brewers match that prediction on June 2.
• The Brewers rebound from the second division and became a contender under new Manager Harvey Kuenn. Under the Brewers "only" batting coach, Milwaukee becomes known as "Harvey's Wallbangers", chalking up a 72-43 mark after June 2 and finishing with the best record in baseball at 95-67.
• In June, the Brewers win 20 of 27 games, the team sets an AL record and ties a Major League mark by blasting 35 homers over the course of 15 consecutive games.

• The Sporting News "Player of the Year," Robin Yount leads the league in four offensive categories with 210 hits, 367 total bases, a .578 slugging percentage and 46 doubles, also earning the AL "Most Valuable Player" honor from the BBWAA.
• Pete Vuckovich is named the Cy Young Award Winner in the AL with an 18-6 record, helped along by two eight-game winning streaks during the course of the campaign.
• With the Brewers sweeping both major awards, coupled with the Rollie Fingers sweep in 1981, Milwaukee becomes the only AL team ever to sweep both awards two straight years.
• Newcomer Don Sutton is acquired in late August from Houston and notched a 4-1 mark, but more impressively, wins the season finale in Baltimore which gives the Brewers the Eastern Division Title on October 3.
• Defensively, the Brewers lead the AL for the second straight year in double plays and Yount earns his first Gold Glove.
• After falling behind two games to none in the best of five series, the Brewers rallied to become the first team ever to win the League Championship Series after being down 0-2. The 3-2 ALCS victory in the five-game series gave the Brewers the AL pennant and a berth in the 79th World Series against the National League Champion St. Louis Cardinals.
• In an exciting series labeled the "Suds Series," the Brewers and Cardinals play the full seven games with St. Louis earning the title of "World Champions" with a 6-3 victory in the series finale.
• In Milwaukee, the Brewers fans show their loyalty by turning out in the thousands to greet their heroes home in a special ticker-tape parade downtown and at County Stadium.

• The club sets an all-time Milwaukee attendance mark as 2,397,131 fans go through the turnstiles.
• Despite numerous injuries, the Brewers have their sixth straight winning season, maintaining their ranking with the third best record in the Majors over the past six seasons.
• Cecil Cooper's 126 RBI sets a new club record and is tied with Jim Rice to lead the Major Leagues. Cooper also collects his 1,500th career hit and hits over .300 for the seventh straight season.
• Moose Haas leads league with an .813 winning percentage and ties club record with an eight-game winning streak.
• Don Sutton fans Alan Bannister in the eighth inning of the Brewers June 24 contest vs Cleveland recording his 3,000th career strikeout. He becomes the eighth pitcher in Major League history to reach this feat.
• Ben Oglivie, Jim Gantner and Haas named Player of the Week. Cooper named twice. Cooper also named Player of the Month for July.
• Yount gets 1,500th career hit on August 25 with a double in the fifth inning off Tommy John of the California Angels.
• Rene Lachemann named manager for 1984.

• Don Sutton becomes the first pitcher in Major League history to record at least 100 strikeouts in 19 consecutive seasons.
• In just 33 appearances, Rollie Fingers records 23 saves upping all-time leading save total to 324, tying Sparky Lyle for the all-time high in the AL, with 216 saves.
• In late September, Brewers Executive Vice President and General Manager Harry Dalton rehires George Bamberger as skipper of the 1985 Brewers.

• Cecil Cooper and Paul Molitor are named to the All-Star team - for Cooper, it is his fifth invitation while Molitor, who participates in the Mid-Summer classic in his hometown (Minneapolis), is named to his second.
• Pitcher Teddy Higuera is named The Sporting News American League Rookie Pitcher of the Year and finishes second in the Baseball Writers Association of America balloting for AL Rookie of the Year.
• Ernest Riles named to Topps All-Rookie squad and winds up second runner-up in the BBWAA voting for Rookie of the Year.
• Paul Molitor finishes second in the voting for AL Comeback Player of the Year honors.
• Pitcher Danny Darwin, despite posting a dismal 8-18 record, including a club record 10 straight losses, becomes the first Brewer to register a one-hitter, two-hitter and three-hitter in the same season.
• Moose Haas becomes the first pitcher to one-hit the New York Yankees at Yankee Stadium in 17 seasons.

• Teddy Higuera becomes the first 20-game winner for the Brewers since Mike Caldwell in 1978. Higuera's 20-11 mark makes him the first Mexican-born pitcher to win 20 games in the AL. He posts his 20th victory on October 1 vs Detroit.
• Robin Yount collects his 2,000th career hit on September 6 vs Cleveland.
• George Bamberger retires before the season ends and Tom Trebelhorn becomes the fifth manager in as many years.

1987

• The Brewers win more than 90 games for the first time since going to World Series in 1982, the fourth time in club history.
• Milwaukee was quickly named "Team Streak" for its brand of baseball in this season of surprises and hope.

- On September 28, the Wisconsin State Assembly passes the financing package with a 52-47 vote.
- The State Senate approves the plan at 5 a.m. on October 6 with a 16-15 vote after the plan fails twice during the previous night.

• Governor Tommy Thompson signs the Stadium Bill into law in the centerfield parking lot at County Stadium on October 12 assuring Wisconsin would remain a Major League State for the next 30 years.

• David Nilsson makes Brewers history on May 17 when he hits two home runs in the sixth inning against the Twins in Minnesota. Nilsson becomes the first Milwaukee player in club history, the 29th player in Major League baseball history and the 12th player in American League history to hit two homers in an inning.
• May 20 was a memorable day for manager Phil Garner as he picks up his 300th career win when the Brewers defeat the Twins 3-2 in Minnesota. Garner becomes just the third Milwaukee manager (Tom Trebelhorn and George Bamberger) to collect 300 wins in a Brewers uniform.
• In the year of the home run, the Brewers set a club record for consecutive games with at least one home run at 19 from June 11 - 30, eclipsing the previous mark of 15 set in 1982.
• Greg Vaughn picks up his 150th career home run on May 29 vs Minnesota (Rich Robertson) and collects his 500th career RBI on May 5 in Baltimore (Jimmy Haynes).
• Vaughn hits his 20th homer of the season in the 67th game of the season on June 20 (Mark Langston), making him the second-quickest player in Brewers history to reach the 20-homer plateau.
• Vaughn also hits 12 home runs in the month of June, tying the club record for most home runs in a month (Gorman Thomas, August 1979).
• Vaughn is the Brewers lone representative at the All-Star Game in Philadelphia, but is unable to play in the game due to food poisoning.
• John Jaha compiles a .300 average to go with 34 home runs and 118 RBI. Jaha becomes the first player to hit at least .300 with 30 homers and 100 RBI since Cecil Cooper in 1983. He is the first player since Robin Yount in 1983 to collect at least 100 RBI and the first player since Greg Vaughn in 1993 to hit 30-or-more home runs
• Third baseman Jeff Cirillo has a breakthrough season, compiling a .325 batting average, the highest average for a second-year player in club history.
• Cirillo also collects 46 doubles, tying him for second with Yount (1982) for most doubles in a single season.
• On November 9, the Brewers officially break ground on Miller Park, their state-of-the-art ballpark.

• On May 7, the Brewers and Oakland Athletics play the longest 1-0 nine-inning game in Major League history. The contest lasts three hours and 20 minutes at County Stadium. Jeff D'Amico makes the start for the Brewers while Steve Karsay takes the hill for the A's.
• The Brewers play their first interleague game on June 13 at Wrigley Field against the Chicago Cubs. Jeff D'Amico leads the Brewers to a 4-2 win over the Cubs, while Terry Mulholland takes the loss. Thousands of Wisconsin fans are among the 36,107 who enjoyed the victory in the first interleague contest at a National League park. The Brewers are the first American League team (other than an exhibition contest) to play in Wrigley Field since the 1945 World Series.
• The St. Louis Cardinals visit County Stadium June 16-18 for the first interleague series at County Stadium. Jeromy Burnitz' solo home run in the bottom of the ninth gives the Brewers the thrilling 1-0 victory. Ben McDonald and Alan Benes are locked in a scoreless pitchers duel for eight innings.
• Phil Garner manages his 820th game June 28 at Kansas City, the most by a skipper in Brewers history.

• Sheets wins career-best sixth consecutive decision defeating Houston 6-1 on June 29 at Miller Park. He becomes the Brewers first rookie representative at the Mid-Summer Classic when he is named to the team on July 4.
• The Brewers lose their first of 11 consecutive games on July 14 vs Minnesota. Mark Loretta snaps the third longest losing streak in franchise history with a run-scoring single in the ninth on July 25 vs Los Angeles.
• Milwaukee acquires righthander Ruben Quevedo along with outfielder Pete Zoccolillo from the Chicago Cubs in exchange for pitchers David Weathers and Roberto Miniel on July 30.
• Davey Lopes begins serving his suspension on July 31 following comments made following an incident on July 29 against San Diego regarding Rickey Henderson stealing second with the Padres leading by seven. Lopes stated Henderson would have been hit intentionally had he come to the plate again.
• On August 29, a crowd of 24,551 helps the Brewers set a new Milwaukee baseball attendance record of 2,406,147 surpassing the previous standard of 2,397,131 set in 1983.
• Richie Sexson equals the club record for most home runs by a first baseman hitting his 36th of the season September 8 at Houston set previously by George Scott in 1975.
• For the first time since World War II, Major League Baseball postpones all regularly scheduled games September 11-16 due to multiple terrorist attacks on the United States. Play resumes for the Brewers on September 17 at St. Louis.
• Major League Baseball's single season strikeout record goes down as Geoff Jenkins strikes out swinging against Danny Graves in the eighth inning on September 22 vs Cincinnati.
• Jeromy Burnitz and Richie Sexson make Major League history becoming the first teammates to homer three times in the same game accomplishing this feat on September 25 at Bank One Ballpark in Arizona.
• The Brewers surpass 200 homers for only the third time in franchise history on September 29 vs Colorado.
• Mark McGwire hits the final home run of his illustrious career belting a three-run shot off Rocky Coppinger in the sixth inning on October 4 at Miller Park marking the 583rd time he has left the yard over the course of his career.
• Richie Sexson equals Gorman Thomas' (1979) franchise record with his 45th home run of the season on October 7 vs

Arizona. In the process, Sexson finishes second to Cecil Cooper (126 in 1983) driving in 125 runs on the season.

- Ben Sheets delivers the Brewers first win aided by home runs from Richie Sexson, Geoff Jenkins and Alex Ochoa in a 9-3 Opening Day victory on April 2 at Houston.
- The benches clear after Pittsburgh's Aramis Ramirez is hit by a Ben Sheets pitch April 17 at Miller Park. The eventual 3-2 loss drops Milwaukee to 3-12, their worst start in franchise history, keying the firing of manager Davey Lopes.
- Jerry Royster picks up his first Major League victory after being named interim manager on April 18 vs St. Louis. Royster would win each of his first four contests in the interim role.
- In his "offical" debut, Royster leads Milwaukee to a 4-3 victory on April 30 vs Atlanta after having the interim tag removed.
- The Brewers draw 253,944 fans, third best April totals in franchise history, in 11 April home dates despite the worst start in franchise history at 8-18.
- Shawn Green proves to be a one-man wrecking crew setting a Major League record collecting 19 total bases after going six-for-six with four home runs, seven runs batted in and six runs scored May 23 at Miller Park. Green goes 9-for-14 with six home runs and 10 runs batted in during the three-game series.
- Injury strikes on June 17 vs Houston as Geoff Jenkins' season is brought to an abrupt halt in horrific fashion severely dislocating his right ankle lunging back to third base following a Tyler Houston second inning single.
- Milwaukee is represented by two of their own in the Mid-Summer Classic for the first time since 1999 as Richie Sexson and Jose Hernandez get the nod. Sexson gives the hometown crowd something to cheer about the day before the big event advancing to the second round of the home run derby falling to eventual champ Sammy Sosa in the second round.
- Milwaukee plays host to the 73rd annual Mid-Summer Classic on July 9 at Miller Park. The third event of its kind in Milwaukee, and first since 1975, ends in a tie after both teams rosters are exhausted. Sexson goes 0-for-1 and Hernandez finishes 0-for-3.
- The Brewers pay tribute to the 1982 American League Championship club with a 20th anniversary celebration August 20. Hall of Famers Robin Yount and Rollie Fingers along with future Hall of Famer Paul Molitor are among those in attendance.
- Ben Sheets becomes the first Brewers' pitcher to reach the 200-inning plateau since 1997 on September 17 vs Houston. Sheets gets company the following night as Glendon Rusch reaches the 200-inning mark becoming the first Brewer teammates to earn this distinction since Ben McDonald (221.1) and Scott Karl (207.1) in 1996.
- The Brewers lose 100 games for the first time in franchise history suffering a 3-1 setback on September 22 vs San Francisco.
- Richie Sexson drives in his 100th run joining Gorman Thomas (1979 & 80) as the only two righthanders in franchise history to post consecutive 100-RBI seasons.
- A major shakeup takes place in the Brewers' front office on September 25. Wendy Selig-Prieb steps down as President and Chief Executive Officer to become the Chair of the Board of Directors. Local attorney Ulice Payne Jr. is named President and CEO, becoming the highest ranking African American in Major League Baseball history. In addition, the Brewers name Doug Melvin as the club's General Manager replacing Dean Taylor who had a year remaining on his existing contract.
- Melvin names Ned Yost the 14th manager in franchise history on October 29.
- Yost names his staff for the 2003 season which will include: Bill Castro (Bullpen), Rich Dauer (Bench), Rich Donnelly (Third Base), Mike Maddux (Pitching), Dave Nelson (First Base) and Butch Wynegar (Batting).

2003

- After an 0-6 start to begin the Ned Yost era, Glendon Rusch leads the club to a 5-3 win at Pittsburgh giving the skipper his first win.
- Richie Sexson's second career three-homer game and John Vander Wal's multi-homer effort led the club to a 12-5 victory in Ned Yost's first game against his former club. Sexson set the franchise record with 14 total bases eclipsing the previous standard set by Paul Molitor.
- Scott Podsednik enters the regular line-up on May 13 in what is the start of one of the more impressive rookie seasons in baseball history.
- The Brewers defeat the Reds in dramatic fashion on May 17 as Eddie Perez' first career walk-off homer results in an 8-6 Milwaukee win.
- Lightning strikes twice in less than a week as John Vander Wal connects for a walk-off blast in an 8-7 win over San Diego on May 20.
- Geoff Jenkins' connects for his second career three-homer game on May 21 vs San Diego overshadowing Wayne Franklin's first career complete game shutout as the Brewers best the Padres 10-0.
- Milwaukee wins their first doubleheader since May 2000 besting the New York 8-7 and 5-3 on June 5 at Shea Stadium closing out their three-city trip with a 6-2 record - their first winning trip of three-or-more cities since June 25 - July 7, 2002.
- Geoff Jenkins becomes the first National Leaguer to get voted into the All-Star game via the internet in the e-Topps Final Vote. Jenkins and Richie Sexson represent the club at U.S. Cellular Field in Chicago.
- Cries for free George Webb's hamburgers echo through the streets as Milwaukee wins 10 straight games August 19 - 28 for the first time since 1988. The streak falls two shy of the magic number (12) ending the next day at Chicago (N). The streak doesn't come without a price as Geoff Jenkins fractures his left thumb.
- The Brewers finish August with a 16-12 record marking their first winning month since May 2001.
- Miller Park plays host to 131,254 people September 5 - 7 against the Chicago Cubs setting a three-game series record.
- Richie Sexson becomes the first player in franchise history to post two 40-homer campaigns September 13 at San Francisco. Just shy of two weeks later, Sexson would equal the club record which he previously set alongside Gorman Thomas (1979) in 2001.
- In dramatic fashion, Scott Podsednik becomes the fourth rookie since 1900 to hit .300, steal 40 bases and score 100 runs joining Jimmy Barrett (1900), Shoeless Joe Jackson (1911) and Ichiro Suzuki (2001) homering in his final at bat to cross the plate for the 100th time.
- Milwaukee concludes the first season of the Ned Yost era boasting a 12-game improvement. Richie Sexson becomes the first player to play every inning in a 162-game season since 1986 when Cal Ripken accomplished this feat for Baltimore.
- Chairman of the Board, Wendy Selig-Prieb and the club's Board of Directors announce that the Milwaukee Brewers Baseball Club is for sale on January 16, 2004.

Milwaukee BrewersALL-TIME ROSTER

The Milwaukee Brewers have had 579 players who have worn their colors since 1970. In addition, there have been 30 players who played for the Brewers forefathers, the Seattle Pilots in 1969, but not for the Brewers.

BrewersPINCH-HIT HOME RUNS

The Milwaukee Brewers have hit 66 pinch-hit home runs in their history. Of those, 30 came at County Stadium and eight at Miller Park while 28 have been hit on enemy soil. In 1997, Jeromy Burnitz became the first player in Brewers history to hit pinch-hit homers in two consecutive games. He also tied the American League record for pinch-hit homers in consecutive at bats with two. Tyler Houston hit the first pinch hit homer at Miller Park, a two-run game-winning shot on April 24, 2001 vs New York (N).

Brewers1-0 GAMES

The Milwaukee Brewers have played 94 games in which the final score was 1-0. Their record in games of this type is 49-45. The 1971 season saw a club record eight 1-0 games while 1982 and 1996 were the only two years that the Brewers did not play a game of this type. Boldface indicates the Brewers pitcher involved while * indicates that the pitcher did not throw a complete game.

BrewersGRAND SLAMS

The Milwaukee Brewers have hit 115 grand slams, 50 at County Stadium, nine at Miller Park and 56 on the road, since 1970. Fifty-six players have hit grand slams as members of the Brewers. The Brewers hit a club record 10 grand slams in 1995. Jeromy Burnitz, Cecil Cooper and John Jaha are the Brewers All-Time leaders with five bases loaded round trippers. Rob Deer, Ben Oglivie, Gorman Thomas and Jose Valentin have each hit four grand slams. Jaha (1995), John Vander Wal (2003) and Devon White (2001) share the distinction as the Brewers All-Time leaders for grand slams in a season with three.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS WITH 200 HIT SEASONS

Three players have surpassed the 200 hit mark in one season while wearing a Brewers uniform, led by Cecil Cooper, who accomplished the feat three times. Cooper set a club record in 1980 when he pounded out 219 hits. He also accomplished the feat in 1982 (205) and 1983 (203). Paul Molitor reached the 200-hit plateau in 1982 with 201. Robin Yount (210) has also accomplished the feat, as Yount, Cooper and Molitor finished 1-2-3 in the American League in hits in 1982, marking the first time that has happened since the 1915 Detroit Tigers.

BrewersRETIRED NUMBERS

Hank AARON

Born: 2/5/34 in Mobile, Alabama
Bats/Throws: R/R
Position: Outfield
Years in Milwaukee: 1954-65, 75-76

Hammerin' Hank had his famous number "44" retired after the conclusion of the 1976 season. Aaron played baseball in Milwaukee from 1954 through 1965 with the Braves and in 1975 and '76 with the Brewers. He was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in 1982 after closing out his career with a record 755 home runs. He was the National League's MVP in 1957, the year the Braves won the World Series. Aaron also hit 40-or-more home runs in eight seasons, drove in 100-or-more runs 16 times and had a .305 lifetime batting average.

Rollie FINGERS

Born: 8/25/46 in Steubenville, Ohio
Bats/Throws: R/R
Position: Pitcher
Years in Milwaukee: 1981-85

The man who made the Handlebar Mustache famous had his number "34" retired on August 9, 1992 in ceremonies at County Stadium. Fingers, who was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in 1992, spent five seasons in a Brewers uniform. He made his mark on the baseball world as the game's first relief ace. Fingers also won both the Cy Young and Most Valuable Player awards in 1981, the first pitcher to accomplish the feat since Oakland's Vida Blue in 1971.

Robin YOUNT

Born: 9/16/55 in Danville, Illinois
Bats/Throws: R/R
Position: Shortstop/Outfield
Years in Milwaukee: 1974-93

The Kid had his legendary number "19" retired in ceremonies at County Stadium on May 29, 1994. Yount played his entire 20-year career with the Brewers from 1974-93 breaking into the big leagues at the tender age of 18. Yount won Most Valuable Player awards in 1982 and 1989. He became the 17th player in baseball history to record 3,000 career hits when he accomplished the feat on September 9, 1992 against the Cleveland Indians at County Stadium with a single off Jose Mesa. Yount became the first player to enter the National Baseball Hall of Fame as a Brewer after being inducted on July 25, 1999.

Jackie ROBINSON

Born: 1/31/19 in Cairo, Georgia
Bats/Throws: R/R
Position: Second Base
Years in the Majors: 10

The man who broke baseball's color barrier as a Brooklyn Dodger had his number "42" retired by Major League Baseball in 1997. The Brewers honored Robinson in special pre-game ceremonies at County Stadium July 18, 1997. Former Brewers pitcher Scott Karl was the last Brewer to wear number "42" as a tribute to Robinson.

Paul MOLITOR

Born: 8/22/56 in St. Paul, Minnesota
Bats/Throws: R/R
Position: Infield
Years in Milwaukee: 1978-92

"The Ignitor" had his number "4" retired by the Milwaukee Brewers prior to their game against the Minnesota Twins on July 11, 1999. Molitor's career in Milwaukee spanned 12 seasons and was highlighted by the 1982 World Series in addition to an exhiliarating 39-game hitting streak while playing with Team Streak during the 1987 season. During the ceremony, Molitor said that should he be elected into the Baseball Hall of Fame, he would be honored to enter as a Milwaukee Brewer. He will honor that commitment as he becomes the second Brewer to be inducted into Baseball's Hall of Fame this summer.

BrewersPOST-SEASON HISTORY

1981 AMERICAN LEAGUE EASTERN DIVISION SERIES

Milwaukee vs New York

For the first time in Major League history, a divisional playoff series was established because of the split season. In the American League Eastern Division, New York, winners of the first half confronted Milwaukee, winners of the second half. It was the 34th time the Yankees participated in post-season action, while it marked the first appearance in playoff competition for the Brewers. New York took the best of five series, three-games-to-two and swept three games from Oakland to earn the American League Championship. The Yankees lost to the National League Champion Los Angeles Dodgers four-games-to-two in the 78th World Series.

1982 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Milwaukee vs California

In a dramatic and thrilling American League Championship Series, Milwaukee set a precedent in LCS play. The Brewers overcame an 0-2 deficit against California to win their first American League Pennant. The Angels captured the first two games played in Anaheim and the Brewers rallied at County Stadium, sweeping three straight games. The comeback performance by Milwaukee was a first in LCS history.

1982 WORLD SERIES

Milwaukee vs St. Louis

It was labeled the Suds Series, and the 79th World Series between Milwaukee and St. Louis truly foamed over with exciting action as it went the limit. The Series was tied three times and each club held the advantage twice in the see-saw battle. The Cardinals won their ninth World Championship by downing the Brewers four-games-to-three, including winning the final two games in St. Louis. It was St. Louis' 13th trip to the World Series and Milwaukee's first trip to the October Classic.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Admission to Stadium

Enter through the South Dock located in the right field corner on the Service level at Miller Park. The press gate is open four (4) hours prior to game time. Baseball Writers of America Association (BBWAA) cards or working credentials issued by the Milwaukee Brewers Media Relations or by Major League Baseball are required for admittance. NO OTHER CREDENTIALS WILL BE HONORED. The media cab drop entrance is also at the South Dock entrance off Highway 41. All bags will be checked by security upon entrance to the ballpark.

Bob Betts Press Box

The Bob Betts Press Box is located on the Loge level directly behind home plate. The main press box, as well as the adjacent radio and television booths, have rolling windows that are either entirely open or entirely closed. The main press box is a smoke-free environment. There are seven radio and television booths that are reserved for both home and visiting announcers. A quiet work room is located immediately behind the press box and should be used during post-game by radio stringers to send sound. An elevator directly behind the press box will transport media directly to the Service level. This elevator is reserved for media and first aid immediately after the game.

Clubhouses

The Home Clubhouse is located on the Service level on the first base side. The Visiting Clubhouse is located on the Service level on the third base side. ONLY PROPERLY CREDENTIALED MEDIA ARE ALLOWED IN THE CLUBHOUSES. Print Media is allowed access beginning three-and-a-half (3 1/2) hours prior to game time. All media must leave the clubhouse forty-five (45) minutes prior to game time. No television cameras are allowed in the clubhouse pre-game without approval from the Brewers Media Relations Department. TRAINERS ROOM, X-RAY ROOM, KITCHEN, WEIGHT ROOM AND VIDEO ROOM ARE OFF LIMITS TO MEDIA. The clubhouse area is closed during respective club's batting practice sessions. STILL PHOTOGRAPHERS ARE NOT ALLOWED IN THE CLUBHOUSES WITHOUT PRIOR APPROVAL FROM THE CLUB'S MEDIA RELATIONS STAFF.

Dark Room Facilities

There are Dark Room facilities located on the Service level across from the Brewers Clubhouse. Modem lines are available for photographers to transmit their photographs electronically.

BOB UECKER

Radio Announcer

In 2004, Bob Uecker, the illustrious "Voice of the Brewers," will be behind the mic for his 34th year as a Major League Baseball broadcaster for his hometown team calling play-by-play on WTMJ-Radio and the Brewers Radio Network.

Uecker earned the 2003 Ford C. Frick Award and will forever be recognized in Baseball's Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York. On July 27, 2003, he made one of the most memorable speeches in Hall of Fame induction history as he left his audience, including former President George H. Bush, in tears from laughter.

In 2003, Uecker also joined former Brewers General Manager, Harry Dalton, as a member of the Walk of Fame located near home plate outside of Miller Park. He and Dalton joined Robin Yount, Paul Molitor, Henry Aaron, Rollie Fingers, Allan H. (Bud) Selig and Cecil Cooper in receiving this special honor presented annually since the inaugural season at Miller Park in 2001.

Affectionately known across the country as "Mr. Baseball," Uecker has completed 24 seasons as the club's number one announcer. Uecker is enormously well respected in the industry, having been inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame in 2001 where he joined such baseball broadcasting luminaries as Vin Scully, Mel Allen, Red Barber, Ernie Harwell and Jack Brickhouse as well as other American icons such as Bob Hope, Jack Benny, Edward R. Murrow and Orson Welles to name a few.

Uecker has earned the Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year five times during his career and was inducted into the Wisconsin Sports Hall of Fame in 1998.

His big break can be traced to a 1969 visit with Al Hirt, a renowned jazz trumpeter from New Orleans, which would alter Uecker's life forever. Hirt opened a small nightclub in Atlanta and asked him to come on stage. Hirt was so impressed he arranged an appearance for Uecker on the "Tonight Show," starring Johnny Carson. Uecker became one of Carson's favorite guests, making some 100 appearances before the Late Night host retired in 1992. He also made appearances on the Mike Douglas and Merv Griffin shows, Late Night with David Letterman and as a guest host on Saturday Night Live.

Uecker became a national celebrity and the ABC Network took advantage of his popularity. He made appearances on "The Superstars" and "The Midnight Special" which opened the door for more elaborate appearances.

A versatile talent, Uecker's credits go far beyond guest appearances and play-by-play. In 1985, Uecker launched a television acting career as one of the stars of ABC's sitcom "Mr. Belvedere," which put 122 episodes into syndication. He also hosted two syndicated television shows, "Bob Uecker's Wacky World of Sports" and "Bob Uecker's War of the Stars." He was one of the Miller Lite All-Stars in popular commercials for Lite Beer from Miller. Uecker was type cast as a radio announcer in the film "Major League" filmed at County Stadium, and stole the show in the sequel, "Major League II."

The snowball continued to roll for Uecker. His experience broadcasting Brewers games both on radio and television gained Uecker national recognition as a play-by-play announcer for ABC Sports coverage of Monday Night Baseball, the League Championship Series and the World Series.

Uecker's accomplishments weren't limited to the electronic medium. A former catcher who spent six seasons in the Majors, Bob authored a book entitled "Catcher In the Wry," a humorous look back on the years he spent with the Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves, St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Phillies. One of his career highlights as a player came in 1964, when he was a member of the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals.

With all his national attention and success, Bob never forgot his roots. He lent his services in support of several local organizations, including the United Performing Arts Fund, the Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer Fund, the Milwaukee Symphony, the Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee and Big Brothers/Big Sisters. In addition, he's an advocate for such organizations as cystic fibrosis, heart disease and the Wisconsin Department of Tourism. He also chairs the popular Bob Uecker Celebrity Fishing Tournament for the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

For his efforts, Uecker was inducted into the Wisconsin Performing Artists Hall of Fame in 1993. The Hall of Fame was established in 1983 to honor nationally and internationally known performing artists with Wisconsin ties. In 1994, he was elected to the Wisconsin Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame. In January of 1995, he earned the "Big B.A.T." Award from the Baseball Assistance Team at a dinner in New York City for his continuing support of former Major League stars who are in need of support.

BOB UECKER'S FORD C. FRICK ACCEPTANCE SPEECH
JULY, 27, 2003 IN COOPERSTOWN, NEW YORK
(Introduced by Baseball Hall-of-Famer Joe Morgan)

Thank you, Joe, thank you very much. And thank you ladies and gentlemen. And my congratulations to Hal, Gary Carter, Eddie Murray, and to all of the members of the staff of the Hall of Fame, thank you very much. This has been a wonderful, wonderful time.

I, in deference to Hal McCoy, was asked to quit many times. I was born and raised in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Actually, I was born in Illinois. My mother and father were on an oleo margarine run to Chicago back in 1934, because we couldn't get colored margarine in Wisconsin. On the way home, my mother was with child. Me. And the pains started, and my dad pulled off into an exit area, and that's where the event took place. I remember it was a nativity type setting. An exit light shining down. There were three truck drivers there. One guy was carrying butter, one guy had frankfurters, and the other guy was a retired baseball scout who told my folks that I probably had a chance to play somewhere down the line.

I remember it being very cold. It was January. I didn't weigh very much. I think the birth certificate said something like ten ounces. I was very small. And I remember the coldness on my back from the asphalt. And I was immediately wrapped in swaddling clothes and put in the back of a '37 Chevy without a heater. And that was the start of this Cinderella story that you are hearing today.

Bob Uecker delivers his Hall of Fame acceptance speech

I did not have a lot of ability as a kid, and my dad wanted me to have everything that everybody else had. I think the first thing that he ever bought me was a football. And I was very young. He didn't know a lot about it, he came from the old country. I mean, we tried to pass it and throw it and kick it, and we couldn't do it. And it was very discouraging for him and for me. Almost, we almost quit. And finally we had a nice enough neighbor, came over and put some air in it, and what a difference.

I got a lot of my ability from my father. As a lot of these other guys did. My father actually came to this country as a soccer player. He didn't play, he blew up the balls is what he did. And they didn't have pumps in those days. And to see a man put that valve in his mouth and insert it into a soccer ball, and blow thirty pounds of air. And then have the ability to pull that thing out without it fracturing the back of his mouth was unbelievable. You had to see his neck and his veins popping. It was unbelievable. How proud I was as I watched him do it time after time.

My first sport was eighth grade basketball. And my dad didn't want to buy me the supporter, Johnny (Bench), you know, to do the job. So my mother made me one out of a flour sack. And the tough thing about that is, you put that thing on, you whip it out of your bag in the gym. You know all the guys are looking at it. And you start the game. The guy guarding you knows exactly where you're going since little specks of flour keep dropping out. And then right down the front it says "Pillsbury's Best."

I signed a very modest $3,000 bonus with the Braves in Milwaukee, which I'm sure a lot of you know. And my old man didn't have that kind of money to put out. But the Braves took it. I remember sitting around our kitchen table counting all this money, coins out of jars, and I'm telling my dad, "Forget this, I don't want to play." He said, "No, you are going to play baseball. We are going to have you make some money, and we're going to live real good." My dad had an accent, I want to be real authentic when I'm doing this thing. So I signed. The signing took place at a very popular restaurant in Milwaukee. And I remember driving, and my dad's all fired up and nervous, and I said, "Look, it will be over in a couple of minutes. Don't be uptight." We pull in the parking lot, pull next to the Braves automobile, and my dad screwed up right away. He doesn't have the window rolled up far enough and our tray falls off and all the food is on the floor. And from there on it was baseball.

Starting with the Braves in Milwaukee, St. Louis, where I won the World's Championship for them in 1964, to the Philadelphia Phillies and back to the Braves in Atlanta where I became Phil Niekro's personal chaser. But during every player's career there comes a time when you know that your services are no longer required, that you might be moving on. Traded, sold, released, whatever it may be. And having been with four clubs, I picked up a few of these tips. I remember Gene Mauch doing things to me at Philadelphia. I'd be sitting there and he'd say, "Grab a bat and stop this rally." Send me up there without a bat and tell me to try for a walk. Look down at the first base coach for a sign and have him turn his back on you.

But you know what? Things like that never bothered me. I'd set records that will never be equaled, 90 percent I hope are never printed: .200 lifetime batting average in the major leagues which tied me with another sports great averaging 200 or better for a ten-year period, Don Carter, one of our top bowlers.

In 1967 I set a major league record for passed balls, and I did that without playing every game. There was a game, as a matter of fact, during that year when Phil Niekro's brother and he were pitching against each other in Atlanta. Their parents were sitting right behind home plate. I saw their folks that day more than they did the whole weekend.

But with people like Niekro, and this was another thing, I found the easy way out to catch a knuckleball. It was to wait until it stopped rolling and then pick it up. There were a lot of things that aggravated me, too. My family is here today. My boys, my girls. My kids used to do things that aggravate me, too. I'd take them to the game and they'd want to come home with a different player. I remember one of my friends came to Atlanta to see me once. He came to the door, he says, "Does Bob Uecker live here?" He says, "Yeah, bring him in." But my two boys are just like me. In their championship little league game, one of them struck out three times and the other one had an error allowed the winning run to score. They lost the championship, and I couldn't have been more proud. I remember the people as we walked through the parking lot throwing eggs and rotten stuff at our car. What a beautiful day.

You know, everybody remembers their first game in the major leagues. For me it was in Milwaukee. My hometown, born and raised there, and I can remember walking out on the field and Birdie Tebbetts was our manager at that time. And my family was there: my mother and dad, and all my relatives. And as I'm standing on the field, everybody's pointing at me and waving and laughing, and I'm pointing back. And Birdie Tebbetts came up and asked me if I was nervous or uptight about the game. And I said, "I'm not. I've been waiting five years to get here. I'm ready to go."

He said, "Well, we're gonna start you today. I didn't want to tell you earlier. I didn't want you to get too fired up."

I said, "Look, I'm ready to go."

He said, "Well, great, you're in there. And oh, by the way, the rest of us up here wear that supporter on the inside." That was the first game my folks walked out on, too.

But you know, of all of the things that I've done, this has always been number one, baseball. The commercials, the films, the television series, I could never wait for everything to get over to get back to baseball. I still, and this is not sour grapes by any means, still think I should have gone in as a player. Thank you very much.

The proof is in the pudding. No, this conglomeration of greats that are here today, a lot of them were teammates, but they won't admit it. But they were. And a lot of them were players that worked in games that I called. They are wonderful friends, and always will be. And the 1964 World Championship team. The great Lou Brock. And I remember as we got down near World Series time, Bing Devine, who was the Cardinals' general manager at that time, asked me if I would do him and the Cardinals, in general, a favor. And I said I would. And he said, "We'd like to inject you with hepatitis. We need to bring an infielder up." I said, "Would I able to sit on the bench." He said, "Yes, we'll build a plastic cubicle for you because it is an infectious disease." And I've got to tell you this. I have a photo at home, I turned a beautiful color yellow and with that Cardinal white uniform. I was knocked out. It was beautiful, wasn't it, Lou? It was great.

Of course, any championship involves a World Series [ring]. The ring, the ceremony, the following season in St. Louis at old Busch Stadium. We were standing along the sideline. I was in the bullpen warming up the pitcher. And when they called my name for the ring, it's something that you never ever forget. And when they threw it out into left field. I found it in the fifth inning, I think it was, Lou, wasn't it? And once I spotted it in the grass man, I was on it. It was unbelievable.

But as these players have bats, gloves...I had a great shoe contract and glove contract with a company who paid me a lot of money never to be seen using their stuff. Bat orders...I would order a dozen bats and there were times they'd come back with handles at each end. You know, people have asked me a lot of times, because I didn't hit a lot, we all know that, how long a dozen bats would last me? Depending on the weight and the model that I was using at that particular time I would say eight to ten cookouts.

I once ordered a dozen flame-treated bats, and they sent me a box of ashes, so I knew at that time things were moving on. But there are tips that you pick up when the Braves were going to release me. It is a tough time for a manager, for your family, for the player to be told that you're never going to play the game again. And I can remember walking in the clubhouse that day, and Luman Harris, who was the Braves' manager, came up to me and said there were no visitors allowed. So again, I knew I might be moving on.

Paul Richards was the general manager and told me the Braves wanted to make me a coach for the following season. And that I would be coaching second base. So again, gone.

But that's when the baseball career started as a broadcaster. I remember working first with Milo Hamilton and Ernie Johnson. And I was all fired up about that, too, until I found out that my portion of the broadcast was being used to jam Radio Free Europe. And I picked up a microphone one day and my mic had no cord on it, so I was talking to nobody. But it's such a wonderful, wonderful thing today to be here. And one of my first partners was mentioned earlier, Merle Harmon, and Tom Collins, he's here today. All of those who I have worked with from Merle to Lorn Brown to Dwayne Mosley, Pat Hughes, who now works for the Chicago Cubs, and my current partner today, Jim Powell and Kent Sommerfeld. My thanks to all of you.

To my good pal Bob Costas out there. Thank you, Bobby. All of the network people, that has been as much a part of broadcasting for me as anything. The days with ABC and "Monday Night Baseball" with the late Bob Prince and Keith Jackson and Al Michaels and my great pal, Don Drysdale. All of those people have played such a big part in me being here today. Dick Ebersol, the head of NBC Sports. All of them are a big part of what I am. My family is seated over here. I love them very much.

Ulice Payne is here, the president of the Brewers. The commissioner of baseball is a guy that gave me my start. He said, "I want to bring you back to Milwaukee." And I said, "I'll come." And here I am, 33 years later. Thank you, Al. I call him Al, Bud Selig. Wife Sue is here. To all of my Brewer family, Wendy Selig-Prieb, Laurel Prieb. Tony Migliaccio, one of my great friends. Mike LaBauve, all my people. Jon Greenberg, I didn't even know you were here. You took care of Hal McCoy, what the hell's going on. But all of these people play such a big part in all of our lives.

And to all of you baseball fans around America and any place else, for your letters, your thoughts, your kindness for all of these years, it's been a great run, but number one has always been baseball for me. No matter what else I ever did, baseball was the only way I wanted to go. I thank you very much for your attention today, thank you for having me, and congratulations to everybody here. Thank you very much everybody, thank you.

FORD C. FRICK AWARD

Bob Uecker

Legendary broadcaster Bob Uecker has called games for his hometown Milwaukee Brewers for the last 33 years, including 24 as lead announcer. With his natural good humor and self-deprecating wit Uecker is adored nationally, connecting instantly with players and fans alike.

Recognized five times as Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year, "Mr. Baseball" joined the Brewers broadcasting tandem of Merle Harmon and Tom Collins in 1971. "The Voice of the Brewers" has broadcast the World Series, League Championship Series and All-Star Game, as well as "Monday Night Baseball" in the 1970s and '80s. He was inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame in 2001.

A world-renowned comedic voice in broadcasting, Uecker appeared as a guest with Johnny Carson nearly 100 times. He also appeared in a starring role in the television sitcom "Mr. Belvedere," beginning in 1985. Uecker hosted a pair of syndicated television shows, appeared in popular commercials, was cast as a radio announcer in the films "Major League" and "Major League II" (gaining fame for his noted, "juuuuust a bit outside" call) and has authored the hilarious book entitled "Catcher in the Wry," which recounts his major league career.

Uecker spent six seasons as a catcher in the major leagues and played on one World Series winner, the 1964 Cardinals.

JIM POWELL

Radio Announcer

Jim Powell begins his ninth season as a member of the Brewers broadcast team. A highly regarded presence behind the mic, Powell joined the Brewers in 1996 and was named the 1998 Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year and is a three-time recipient of the Sportscaster of the Year in South Carolina having earned the award in 1990-1991 and 1995.

In addition to his duties on the Brewers' radio network, Powell has logged some time as a member of the Brewers' television team calling the action during the 1999 and 2000 seasons.

Keeping with the baseball theme during the winter months, Jim has served as host of "Talkin' Brewers," the hot-stove league show heard across the Brewers radio network since 1997.

Powell began his Major League broadcasting career with the Minnesota Twins in a reserve role in 1993 and 1994. Prior to this, he accumulated extensive experience at the Minor League level serving as play-by-play announcer for the Charlotte Knights in 1990-91 and 1995 and the Columbia Mets from 1987-89 and 1993-94.

He has also dabbled at the collegiate level taking on play-by-play duties for the University of South Carolina baseball program in 1989 and 1994 as well as the University of Georgia baseball team in 1985-86.

Powell has received national exposure taking on play-by-play duties for CBS Radio for several college football games including the 1997 Sun Bowl pitting Iowa against Arizona State. He has also moonlighted on Host Communications telecasts calling the action on the gridiron in the South Carolina/Vanderbilt tilt on October 21, 2000. He served as the color analyst for the South Carolina Football and Basketball programs from 1993-95 and hosted the Coach's shows for those two sports on television. Powell also did play-by-play for Davidson College basketball in 1990.

Active contributors in the community, Jim and his wife, Emmy, currently serve on the Board of Directors for the Child Abuse Prevention (CAP) Fund.

Powell attended the University of Georgia as a National Merit Scholar. He and Emmy have three daughters, Allie, Sabrina and Julia. The Powells reside in Delafield.

KENT SOMMERFELD

Radio Producer

Kent Sommerfeld is in his 19th season as the Producer of Milwaukee Brewers radio broadcasts. A Wisconsin native, he has acquired a wide range of experience during his tenure in the broadcasting field.

Sommerfeld has been the Radio Producer/Director for the Marquette University radio network since 1990 and hosted an interview segment during the team's pregame programming during the 1995-96 season. He was named Director of the Marquette Basketball Radio Network in 1999 and does play-by-play for the Marquette University Women's basketball broadcasts.

Sommerfeld attended the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater where he earned a degree in communications and broadcast journalism. While at Whitewater, Kent was the sports director of Cable TV 6, a wing of Whitewater's cable system, as well as the co-host of "Sports Chat," a sports talk show on WSUW-Radio.

In addition to his radio accolades, Kent has worked with ESPN's technical staff on several events in the Midwest. He also worked at KRBC-TV, the NBC affiliate in Abilene, Texas as a sports/news photojournalist.

Born in Milwaukee, Sommerfeld attended Brookfield Central High School. He has two sons, Peter and Luke, and resides in New Berlin, Wisconsin.

BILL SCHROEDER

Television Announcer

Bill Schroeder returns for his 10th season as the color commentator on Brewers telecasts providing his analysis for audiences throughout Wisconsin.

Popular with the fans, Schroeder has evolved into a natural in the booth since his career behind the mic began in 1994. He is familiar with the business of talking baseball, co-hosting "Baseball Sunday" in 1994 and "Talkin' Brewers" on WTMJ-Radio from 1998-2000.

This past winter, Schroeder took over the reigns as the coordinator of the Brewers Fantasy Camp welcoming more than 40 campers to the Brewers spring training facility in Maryvale, Arizona in January, 2004.

A lifetime .240 hitter, Schroeder spent eight seasons in the big leagues with the Brewers and the California Angels enjoying a career-best .332 batting average in 1987. As an intricate member of Team Streak, Bill caught Juan Nieves' no-hitter on April 15, 1987, in the midst of the Brewers' Major League record-tying 13-0 start. In addition, he clubbed a career-high 14 home runs and had 42 RBI in a back-up role that season. Schroeder provided the highlight to perhaps his finest season in the Majors on June 14, 1987 at Yankees Stadium. Before family and friends, he collected four hits, including a game winning two-run homer, off New York ace Dave Righetti.

A cornerstone in the community since beginning his Major League career, he hosts the annual Bill Schroeder Celebrity Golf Classic in the Milwaukee area to benefit COA Youth and Family Centers, a Milwaukee charity which helps area children. In 1988, he was named the recipient of the Athletes For Youth Good Guy Award, while in 1984, he earned the club's Unsung Hero Award.

Schroeder graduated from West Windsor Plainsboro High School in Princeton, New Jersey, where he earned All-State honors his junior and senior years. He attended Clemson University, leading the Tigers to the Atlantic Coast Conference title in 1978 and 1979.

Born in Baltimore, Maryland and raised in Princeton, New Jersey Schroeder was traded to the California Angels following the 1988 campaign before retiring in 1990. Bill is married to Kate. He has two daughters, Lindsey and Mallory, and a son, Billy, and resides in Waukesha.

DARON SUTTON

Television Announcer

Daron Sutton is in his third season as the television play-by-play announcer for the Milwaukee Brewers, but is no stranger to Milwaukee having spent three years in the city as a teenager.

Sutton won an Emmy Award in 2003 in the category of Outstanding Achievement for Individual Excellence on Camera - Program Hosts, Reporters (non-news) and Performers (actors, comedians, singers, musicians, etc.) from the Chicago/Midwest Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences.

Named to the position on November 27, 2001, Sutton, 33, brings with him a strong baseball pedigree as his father, Don Sutton, was instrumental in the Brewers push to the World Series in 1982 and is a member of Baseball's Hall of Fame.

He joins the Brewers broadcasting team after spending the 2000 and 2001 seasons as a radio play-by-play announcer for the Anaheim Angels. With the Angels, he not only served as a play-by-play announcer, but also hosted both the pre- and post-game shows including a call-in show after the regular post-game show ended.

Sutton has had extensive television broadcasting experience in his young career. As a member of the Atlanta Braves broadcast team on FOX Sports South, he regularly served in a play-by-play capacity, while also hosting "The New Dodge Braves Report", a Braves pre-game show. He also handled Southeastern Conference collegiate athletic telecasts for FOX in men's and women's basketball, swimming and diving, gymnastics, track and field and volleyball.

Sutton began his broadcasting career in 1993 on the CNN Airport Network before moving to the CNN Sports in December of 1994 as an anchor and then onto FOX Sports South in 1997.

A Minor League pitcher, Sutton spent 1992 with the Boise (ID) Hawks, a Class A affiliate of the Angels, and part of 1993 in the Atlanta Braves organization.

Sutton graduated from Auburn University-Montgomery in 1992 with a degree in Mass Communications. He and his wife, Kristin, have two daughters, Abbey and Lilly.

The Suttons reside in Mequon, Wisconsin.

CRAIG COSHUN

Television Announcer

Craig Coshun begins his fourth season covering Brewers Baseball as a pre-game show host and sideline reporter for selected games on Fox Sports Net. During baseball's off-season, he performs the same duties for the NBA's Milwaukee Bucks on FSN.

Coshun is a veteran sportscaster in the state calling several events for the University of Wisconsin, including Badger football and basketball games since 1990.

He also does college football and basketball play-by-play for the Big Ten Conference. Coshun has worked at NBC affiliates in Eau Claire (WEAU) and Madison (WMTV). He was the sports director at WMTV from 1992-2000.

Coshun also called several sporting events for Midwest Sports Channel. He is a graduate of UW-Whitewater and resides in Verona with his wife Pam, and sons John and Jacob.

Milwaukee BrewersRADIO NETWORK

Thirty-six markets throughout Wisconsin and Michigan will carry Milwaukee Brewers Baseball in 2004. Once again, WTMJ Radio 620 (AM), in Milwaukee, will be the Brewers flagship station. Considered the sports broadcasting leader in Wisconsin, WTMJ Radio is also the flagship station for the Milwaukee Bucks of the National Basketball Association and the Green Bay Packers of the National Football League. All 162 regular season games and any post-season games the Brewers may play this year will be carried, as well as 10 spring training games.

Special Ticket Programs

Birthday at the Park Packages
Guests may celebrate their birthday at the Ballpark. The birthday package includes a special gift bag filled with souvenirs, including a Bernie Brewer Bobblehead Doll and a scoreboard birthday message with their name. The package costs $28.00 (does not include game ticket) and can be ordered by calling the Brewers Ticket Office at (414) 902-4000. This offer is good on reserved seats only and must be ordered at least 48 hours in advance.
Brewers Buddies Program
The Brewers Buddies Program makes baseball games at Miller Park available to children who otherwise would be unable to attend and enjoy the All-American sport. The program, made possible by ticket contributions from area corporations and Season Ticket Holders, distributes tickets to low income, handicapped, troubled and other disadvantaged youth throughout Wisconsin.
Milwaukee Brewers Family Sections
The Brewers have special family sections, designated areas which prohibit all alcoholic beverages, available for every game. Family sections include sections 217, 238 and 417.

2004PROMOTIONAL SCHEDULE

DATE	PROMOTION

April 9 — Edy's Brewers Magnetic Schedule Day
All fans will receive a Brewers 2004 magnetic schedule compliments of Edy's Grand Ice Cream.

April 11 — Kids Easter Celebration at Miller Park
Kids are encouraged to come to Miller Park before the game from 11 am -1 pm to participate in fun Easter events-including egg races with the Brewers/Klement's Racing Sausages, bunny hop with Bernie Brewer and photo ops with the Rally Rabbit. After the Brewers vs. Astros game at Miller Park, kids are encouraged to stay and run the bases with Bernie.

April 23 — Bally's Total Fitness Night
On Bally Total Fitness Night, the first 10,000 adults 18 and older will receive a free 2-week trial membership pass to any Bally Total Fitness location. Plus enjoy pre-game fitness demonstrations in the right field corner, a chance to win great Bally merchandise and as part of this special night, all Bally Total Fitness employees, members and their family and friends have the opportunity to purchase half price loge outfield tickets for the game. Visit your local Bally front desk representative for more details.

April 30-May 2 — Spring Madness
All tickets regularly priced at $20 tickets or less are half price, excluding the Uecker seats. These seats include: Loge Outfield, Terrace Box, Terrace Reserved, Field Bleachers, Loge Bleachers, and Bernie's Terrace. Small Pepsi products and hot dogs are $1 each.

May 1 — Brewers Kids Police Baseball Card Night
The first 10,000 kids 16 and under will receive a set of Brewers trading cards. Each trading card features a Brewers player and a positive message on the back.

May 2 — University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee Doubleheader (Post Game)
All fans are encouraged to stay after the Brewers vs. Pirates game to watch the University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee Panthers take on the University of Detroit - Mercy Titans. The doubleheader is scheduled to start approximately 20 minutes after the conclusion of the Brewers game. There is no charge to attend the doubleheader; fans may enter Miller Park after the end of the Brewers game. The Kids Base Run will be cancelled to accommodate this event.

May 14 — Milwaukee Braves Night
The clock will turn back to the Milwaukee Braves era, as the Brewers honor stars of the Milwaukee Braves, including Warren Spahn and Eddie Matthews. Players will sport the uniform of the Braves as prices roll back. Receive half-price Terrace Reserved, Terrace Box & Bleacher seats, while supplies last. (Excludes the Uecker Seats.) Plus Bernie's Terrace tickets are $1.00 each. Small Pepsi products and hot dogs are $1 each.

THE HOME RUN CLUB
Corporate Partnership Program
(Formerly Baseball for Wisconsin)

The Home Run Club Corporate Partnership Program, previously known as Baseball for Wisconsin, was established in 1995 in conjunction with the MMAC and the Greater Milwaukee business community, to assist the Milwaukee Brewers in selling season tickets. It is a unique sales program to both the Brewers and Major League Baseball.

The Home Run Club is an employee benefit sales program. To implement the program, the Brewers team up with companies on a mutually agreeable subsidy. This in turn permits the Brewers to sell season ticket packages to employees within the particular company through a special internal ticket sales program. The company subsidy is used in order to offset the total cost of the various ticket packages to employees. The Brewers are able to sell more ticket packages because of the minimal cost to company employees, and the company is recognized as a corporate sponsor of the Brewers as well as receiving other mutually agreeable benefits. Upon company approval, the Milwaukee Brewers will run all aspects of the program while the employee benefits are reflected as coming solely from the participating company.

By taking advantage of this program, company employees can secure preferential seating in Miller Park and can enjoy all of the benefits of being a season ticket holder at a considerable discount.

Interested companies who would like to participate in the program or need further information are encouraged to contact the Brewers sales office at 414-902-4100.

Milwaukee BrewersWOMEN ON WEDNESDAYS

The Milwaukee Brewers Baseball club invite women of all ages and backgrounds, their friends and family to Miller Park every Wednesday home game (13 total) for WOMEN on WEDNESDAYS (WOW) presented by Kohl's and the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel. This exciting initiative will feature a variety of displays and demonstrations for women combined with the excitement of Brewers baseball.

WOW themes focus on what's important to women and their families. From the time you enter the game--where the first 5,000 adults will receive a special $10 Kohl's Department Stores offer--through the first pitch to the last inning, you will know it's WOW. And just so you don't miss out on any of the excitement, Women on Wednesdays will have its own area for pre-game and in-game activities located in the Right Field corner on the Field Level in Miller Park.

Women on Wednesdays also includes special services and menus. Fans can be pampered in all of the WOW areas, and indulge in menu items created especially for women in the concession stand in right field as well as at the gourmet coffee kiosk. Enjoy a complimentary 10-minute Chair Massage by the Lakeside School of Massage Therapy and special health screenings by St. Michael Hospital.

There are also special women-oriented displays and demonstrations. From the gate opening through the 7th inning, visit the right field corner on the field level to interact with experts on a variety of topics geared towards women. Register there for great prize giveaways.

MARYVALE BASEBALL PARK

The Brewers return to beautiful Maryvale Baseball Park for their seventh Spring Training in 2004. Considered to be one of the premiere spring complexes, the Brewers are in the midst of a 15-year lease through 2012 which has helped to revitalize the Maryvale neighborhood.

The facility, opened in 1998, includes 7,000 permanent seats as well as 1,000 lawn seats. The complex features eight fields, including two half fields. The Brewers Minor League players also train at the Maryvale complex across the parking lot from the Major League facility.

John F. Long, a longtime Valley developer, donated 56 acres of land to make this beautiful complex a reality. With Maricopa County, the Maryvale County Stadium District and the city of Phoenix providing resources, Maryvale is the foundation for future neighborhood development. Overseeing the operations of the Maryvale Baseball Park is the Phoenix Parks and Recreation Department.

The primary architect on the ballpark was Ellerbe Beckett of Phoenix, Arizona. Their work at Maryvale garnered several awards in 1998 including the Architecture Accessiblilty Award from the Mayor's Commission on Disability Issues, the Citation Award from the Arizona Chapter of the American Institute of Architects and the Merit Award from the Western Mountain Region of the American Institute of Architects.
